The BCNE held their annual specialty in conjunction with the Springfield KC Show during the Thanksgiving Cluster in WSpringfield, MA in November. It was universally agreed that the show committee put on the best specialty the BCNE has ever held and plans for next year's show are already well underway. The BCDV closed its 25th anniversary year by a special Christmas party held in Decemeber. All past and present members of the Club were invited to attend the event.

Plans are now underway for the spring cluster of shows which includes the BCGNY Independent Specialty and the BCDV Specialty which are always held in early May. These two shows are always 2 of the most prestigious on the east coast and should be put on everyone's schedule. The BCNE is sponsoring its first coursing match on Memorial Day weekend, and it is planning a Supported Entry for the Yankee Classic Shows in West Springfield, MA in July. The BCCNJ continues to hold events which will complete its final AKC requirements to be able to hold its own specialty. Clearly, the Region is looking forward to a busy spring schedule.
