

Committee Reports

Spring 2018

Annual Versatility Award (Kay Novotny):

Some people have expressed interest in adding additional titles/disciplines to the versatility list. I am going to look at the titles/activities in the next couple of months and make some recommendations.

Aristocrat (Editor, Helen Lee)

In the past year, there has been a marked increase in advertising in the Aristocrat.

- Summer 2017 - 16 pages - 1 regular ad
- Fall 2017 - 30 pages - 10 new title ads - 2 regular ads
- Winter 2017 - 25 pages - 4 new title ads - 1 regular ad
- Spring 2018 - 38 pages - 10 new title ads - 2 regular ads

I have no way of knowing just why this has happened but am guessing that Rebecca Peters-Campbell's reminder notes were a large part of the reason and perhaps the regional directors have been reminding their constituents to advertise new titles. Either way, the Aristocrat is bringing in more revenue than it used to, which is a good thing. :>)

Along with the increased ads there have been a fair number of articles other than statistics, which is great. Now if we could only tell how many people are actually accessing and reading it.

Health (Nancy Hopkins & Ginger Jones):

We meet with the CHF and Drs. Meurs and Gelzer again on April 17. I will provide a written report for the general membership meeting.

National Specialty Guidelines

Guidelines are currently up-to-date.

2018 National Specialty – Richland, Washington

Logistics has become a problem due to the ring location. Grooming has been moved to the hotel near the dog bathing area. Grooming space is now free. Vendors requesting information have been told of the ring location. We do not have any vendor requests as of this date. Losing our LGRA secretary due to potential puppies being due.

The membership wanted an outdoor show and now that we have one, some of the members are upset because of the ring location, grooming, parking, etc. and voicing their opinion over social media which has more members becoming upset.

The Red Lion Richland has been bought out. It is now owned by Ignite Hotels, same owners as the Red Lion Kennewick. There is a different sales team, who are making the transition smooth for us. The name has not changed, it's still the Red Lion Richland.

As of this date, we have 110 reservations with 654 room nights.

ENTRY DEADLINE IS APRIL 25, 2018!

2019 National Specialty – Lancaster, Pennsylvania
