

From the Archives

At the annual meeting of the Borzoi Club of America held on February 11, 1941, the following officers were elected for 1941: President Carroll G. Stewart, Jr., vice-presidents, Mrs L. P. McConaha and George Mendel, secretary-treasurer and delegate to the AKC, Fairfield P. Day. Those chosen to serve on the board of governors are: Lady Helen Frost, Mrs Robert F. T. Gundlach, Robert Charles and Richard Bralove.

past year. Maxine O'Barons Wood, nine wins, topped all contenders. Unfortunately the owner, Mrs. J. H. Fisher, was not familiar with the terms of the offered trophy, and had not made application for membership in the Club in time to establish her claim for the award her dog so rightfully won.

The other dogs closest to Maxine were: Zorka Dogongai of Mogedo, and Tharmar dar Nusia of Mogedo, five wins each, both owned by Mrs G. Mendel, Sonia IV, four wins, owned by Mrs R. W. Peabody, and Great Rubinoff of Bratzlaff, four wins, owned by Mrs L. P. McConaha.

While we are still on the subject of statistics, our breed showed a splendid gain in "Stud Book" registrations, making a total gain of 30 dogs for the past year. So it does seem that there are more borzois around that are eligible to be shown or bred.

It is too bad that Mrs Mendel could not be in New York to see the clean sweep that her dogs made in the breed at the Garden, this year. It was clearly her day, and must have been a thrill to Mogedo Kennel when all the ribbons arrived home. Ch Korichnevi Malchik of Mogedo, which was best of breed, is a good one, and will bear watching in the future. He is a young dog, and looks like he has many more winning years ahead of him.

I have heard rumors, recently, that Lois Kellogg is starting to breed borzoi again. How true it is I cannot say, but those of us that are somewhat familiar with the history of the breed, hope that this may be correct. Miss Kellogg, some years ago I believe, decided to make her home in the West, and took with her some of the best breeding stock and bloodlines in the country. Those bloodlines are really needed now to help stimulate our breed. – C. G. S.
