1991 BCOA National Specialty Critique

By Mrs. Nadine A. Johnson

It was with much trepidation that I accepted to judge the National Specialty in Florida, April 3 and 4, 1991. Oh, well thought, it will be a rather small one, what with the distance, the war with Iraq, the high price of flying and gasoline. Then came the call from Shen Smith, our Show Secretary with the astounding news that the entries totaled 470 with 113 in Sweepstakes capably judged by Green Post, 22 in Obedience judged by Claire McClure and 3 in Junior Handling adjudicated by Vicki McCoy. The Futurity, Dyane Roth, judge, took place the day before, April 2, in what I was given to understand was a fast setting, at night, under flood lights, in formal attire. I really missed not seeing those beautiful Borzoi with the furry tail background.

The Silver Lake Lodge, in Ocala, Florida was the ultimate show place. With acres and acres of grass, a private lake, large rooms, many of which overlooked the rings, very helpful hotel personnel, excellent food and fair prices plus the weather cooperating. I could not think of a more perfect venue.

The regular and non-regular entry of 328 took place over two days in a large grassy ring with a huge tent erected for shade and inclement weather, which, luckily, was not needed except for a few of the Triathlon dogs at the end of the show. From the very first class of 6 to 9 months puppy bitches to the grand finale of 61 champions, 10 stud dogs and 13 brood bitches, the quality of the 1991 Borzoi was unmitakable, the presentation of clean, beautifully groomed hounds a joy to behold. Overall the breeders can be very proud of their achievements as there were no “bad quality” representatives. Gone are the “empty” mouths, in my 20 years of judging every entry as these 15 would all have an “Excellent” attached to the official results. First was Sylvan Graceland, almost as good as Megan and has an excellent topline, movement, tail touching the ground. Third, Taramont the Baronsness, caught my eye with her exquisite head, lovely ears, correct topline, front and rear movement good but not as free flowing as the other two. Fourth was Pheasant Hill Oaklara’s Truth, a beautiful bitch sound and well conditioned a tad less true flying off the walls with every leg doing its own thing, and look at her now! Second place was won by Po Dusham Looks Like Emily, third was Sylvan Astafiev Porcelain and fourth was Teine Psychedelic Carbonel.

American Bred Bitches: Sixteen entered, was won by Sylvan Astafiev Persia, a beautifully balanced, sound with correct side movement... I remember her as a pup two years ago when she was literally flying off the walls with every leg doing its own thing... and look at her now! Second place was won by Po Dusham Looks Like Emily, third was Sylvan Astafiev Porcelain and fourth was Teine Psychedelic Carbonel. Open Bitches: Here were some of the best of the day, I would love to take some home with me... and look at her now! Second place was won by Po Dusham Looks Like Emily, third was Sylvan Astafiev Porcelain and fourth was Teine Psychedelic Carbonel.
Winner of the day, the second, third and fourth placements were all previously Special winners. Except for Bird By Exhibitor, the dogs judged on the second day.

Six to Nine puppy dogs: Lovely puppies all around, this class was won by Wiktor Szczepanowski, a nice young, smart, with an already deep chest; he handled himself well and had good movement. A very promising pup.

Second, Monarch Golden American Bred dogs: Winner of the day, the second, third and fourth placements were all previous Specialty winners. To this add a lovely head and neck and should develop to expectations. Third, Taranow The Baron, a big puppy dog. Has a nice outline and sideget but his front was very puppish and did not know where to put his feet. Good head with a very dark eye. Woodside SW Winston of Chataqua, fourth, a growing puppy with good movement, strong bones and nice head with a gorgeous coat.

Nine to Twelve puppy dogs: Always a difficult age and hard to judge, this class with many absent, held in its own, First went to Majenkir Toskalski, a very nicely put together dog who looked more than his age with an excellent front and rear, sound coming and going. Second, Cavallino Alexander Britton, also very sound of movement, a close second with perhaps a less pleasing head than Toskalski. Third, Judieck’s Favorite Son, good strong puppy with a pleasing head and fourth Taranow Sze Zszy农贸市场 another promising youngster.

Eleven to Twelve dogs: First, Pollton Pettor of Pavlovou, very sound movement coming and going and gorgeous sidegate. Second, Quinto Southern Style, a very good looking young man in good coat. Fourth, Ashton’s Even It Up, another promising junior.

Novice dogs: Two only in this class. First, Simovar’s Marquis and second, Majenkir Cyniper.

Bred-By Exhibitor dogs: This class was judged the previous day along with the Young, Veteran, and Novice Bitch classes. First went to Seabury’s Chisma a magnificent red dog, I had a hard time taking my eyes off him. Mature, with an excellent coat, sound as they come and a joy to watch going around the ring he deserves the win. Second, Majenkir Nuvor Mandrinko also exuded quality but lacked the maturity of the first dog but had excellent angulation, balanced stifles and shoulders.

This dog was Reserve Winners. Third, Royal R. Kaeser Jr by Design, a big sound quality dog, perhaps not as elegant as the first two. Fourth, Nonsuch Kiyer, nice head carried by lighter eyes, nice extension of movement.

American bred dogs: First, Tour de France Of The Wild Hunt, a very well-proportioned body, well balanced with good movement, head could be finer. Second, Kamassan’s Bhumack of Taranow, a dog of excellent quality was a little wider in the front, otherwise as good as the first. Third, Khamans’ Unit of Sovagawa, a handsome dog only lacked a little strength in front movement. Fourth, Nonsuch Krasa, a nice win at a Specialty where the best competed in this large class. Should do well in the future.

Open dogs: Twenty six strong, again was a joy to behold as so much quality was there as was in the Bred-By Exhibitor class. First, Rohana’s Ashton, a very well balanced, good mover, well presented dog was hard pushed by the Second place dog, Sky Run Winter Watch, again an outstanding mover, a little more mature than Ashton but with a lot of potential. Third, Jeygar’s Bisti of Turgomoff, another quality dog in a quality class is still very young and fourth, Khmadesna Salute, a strong, good moving dog was somewhat overweight which affected his topline. Altogether 12 dogs made the cut and the received the nice “I made the cut” memento.

Veteran dogs: Brought back memories of glories past. First, Majenkir Midway CD, FCh, born in 1982 moved like a younger and enjoyed us being in the ring. Second was Ch. Kovrovs’s Daria of JEM, proved that these obedience winners could still compete. Third with the best. Third was Ch. Zharos Of The Wild Hunt, a very well-proportioned mature, with an excellent coat, sound as they come and a joy to watch going around the ring he deserves the win. First went to Majenkir Midway, CD, FCh, and fourth Ch. Falcon Crest’s Sixth Sense who did not show his age.

Veteran bitches: Nine grand old ladies who had a lot of tiger in their eyes. Champions all and enjoyed themselves and moved with that “look at me” expression. First place, Ch. Majenkir Ondina D. Dusham was quality personified, with a much better coat than in her heyday, a little matriarchly perhaps but still sound and lovely. She also won Best Of Opposite Sex. Second, Ch. Shayko-Dey Isidoro D, in perfect condition, moved the wind and strongly challenged the first place winner. Third, Ch. Sylvan Chelsea of Astafiev, CD, another obedience champion who did not show her age and fourth, Ch. Sorva of Windland, at 12 years old, the veteran of veterans showed that the good ones keep going in style.

B worst of the day was Ch. Majenkir Athens of Avalyn HD 701453, 06-30-89. Breeder: Karen Staut-Carbonton. By Ch. Majenkir Messenger - Majenkir Ondina Silver. Owner: Lynee Bennett.

CH. HARMONY’S SNOW JOKER ON ZENZER HD 566099. 01-08-87. Breeder: Majenkir Danube CDX. CDX III another “complete” Borzoi, with the best. Third was Ch. Zharos Of The Wild Hunt, CD, LCM III, another “complete” Borzoi, with Borsha Arina Anushka and fourth, Taranow The Baron with Sunhar Sanhar Southampton.

With such excellent quality, my only sadness and regret is that too few ribbons were available. Right off hand I can think of some “Certificate of Merit” I would have given to give and which would have been very richly deserved. (To Ch. Ostaigor’s Elegant Tara: my mistake! ...I thought I had one more to award?) Also to both Reserve winners, first place Bred-By bitch, Szerfegha’s Proffetys and second place Vet Bitch, Ch. Shayko-Dey Isidoro D. and many more.

I want to thank the Borzoi Club of America, Inc., the President, Mrs. Gwen Post and all the members, especially my stewards, Dr. Asa and Karen Moys and the Florida members who worked so hard to put on a perfect show as well as the hard-working Secretary Sherry Smith.

And last but not least of all the exhibitors who made the honor to show their obviously loved and well-cared for Borzois. Thank you all.
