Observations and Critique of the 2011 Borzoi Club of America National Specialty

Respectfully Submitted by: Patti Widick Neale

It was a high honor to be given the opportunity to judge the National Specialty for the second time. The riverside setting in Richland made a perfect backdrop to showcase the beauty of our hounds.

My task as the judge was to see past the surface and find those individuals with the greatest number of good qualities as defined by the Standard. Whole dog is always the first consideration. The critical qualities that make up the essence of a sighthound, and more specifically, our Borzoi as defined by the standard, are most apparent when the Borzoi is moving around the ring in profile on a loose lead. Running gear, topline, tail, carriage, extension, balance and grace are given high priorities since they are defining elements of type and construction.

The physical examination takes inventory of the small details of the dog as well as the important qualities of substance, dentition, ribspring and muscular condition, less discernible to the eye.

Borzoi that were strong in the "whole dog" department were the dogs that made the first cut. Individuals that survived a second cut or made the ribbons, possessed more of the fine details. Ranking within the final four in each class usually returned to carriage, extension, and grace. There was much in the way of genuine breeding stock that rose above just "show quality."

Heads, toplines, substance and eyes were good throughout most of the entry, as were rears and feet. Fronts were not as consistently good, and were a deciding factor in a number of the close contests. Most of the class males had full dentition, as did the younger bitches. Older bitches and specials had a greater incidence of missing premolars. Tail carriage overall was the best I've seen in years. I was pleased to find hard condition on many of the entrants of all ages. Temperaments were excellent.

While a full coat is a Borzoi's crowning glory, and many dogs were fully dressed, at no point was it a deciding factor. The biggest area of compromise in judging was on outline. Long bodies, shorter legs, forward-set shoulders, lack of angles on both ends not only are structural faults, but impact breed type as defined by the Standard.

6-9 Puppy Class

Tosch Jubilee Oberon, a sound, nicely proportioned red brindle puppy led the class of four boys, the rest of which were at an ungainly stage of development.

9-12 Puppy Class

The dozen puppies in this class were surprisingly nice as the age is usually an awkward one for the fast growing boys. Kenai's Nostalgia V Bucksilver, a striking tricolor with a good body, great details, and smooth easy gait edged out the very sound Vitrina Ticonderoga on outline and head.

12-18 Dogs

Fawn spotted Aashtoria's Iced Mocha made a pleasing picture with strong topline, long neck, good body and balance and excellent condition in a class of three.

Novice Dogs

The name of the class belied the quality, maturity, and presentation of the winner, Belisarius JP M-P Fate. This gold spotted boy had a correct outline, low hocks, and a fit muscular body.

Bred By Exhibitor

The Bred By Exhibitor class of nine was surprisingly varied in shape and quality. Elance Beyond The Blue, a striking stallion hound, instantly excited my breeder's eye with wonderful silhouette, neck and angles, great carriage and extension, and overall soundness and condition. I expected that he would be the one to beat in Winners class. His runner-up, Morozova's Smoky Mountain Blues was an excellent quality brindle spotted male, sound, nicely boned and bodied, and almost disguised in a glorious heavy coat.

American Bred Dogs

Maturity gave the sable marked Katushka's Braveheart at Brightwind the advantage in a class of three.

Open Dogs

The standout dog in this class, gold spotted Taugo's Ulric, was a stunning, mature male in full coat who commanded immediate attention both standing, and on the go-round. Deep body, high ear set, strong topline, beautiful balance and sound movement gave him the highest marks in this class, and then a very slight edge over the outstanding Bred-By dog in Winners. A worthy second was the black and tan Elance Black Swan, a curvy, solid free-moving dog with excellent type marred only by an over-filled head.

6 to 9 Months

Five sets of sisters made up the class of fifteen mostly gold spotted bitches. Competition was very close in the upper half, though the ribbons split between styles. Horse And Hound L' Aquilla Radost had the substance, soundness and grace to best a lovely bunch. A little curvier topline would have perfected her picture.

9 to 12 Months

Another class of fifteen, mostly unrelated bitches, was more challenging in the variety of shapes. The correct outline of the winner, red brindle spotted Vitrina Saratoga, was easy to see, as she was dressed in her underwear. She was sound, long-striding, bodied up with lots of angles, needing only a bit more leg. She made the final cut in Winners went on to Best Puppy.

12 to 18 Months

Aashtoria's Fantasy on Ice topped this class of six, which included several teens of lovely curvy type, but with slight insufficiencies that affected gait.

Novice

She preferred to be elsewhere, but in her moments of brilliance, veteran single entry Symbiont Exhilaration showed long side gait, long neck, beautiful head, and a full, strong body. Her performance improved considerably in Winners class.

Bred By Exhibitor

Majenkir Bookstor Vintage Glamour topped the field of nine with excellent rear and topline, sound movement, beautiful head, eyes and expression. She went on to Reserve

American Bred

Pleasing outline and proportion, and good type details of eyes and ears, gave Kenai's Whisper In the Dark the blue in a class of six.

Open Bitches

This strong group of mostly mature bitches produced the eventual Winners Bitch in Taugo Ur Mystical Rhayne. She drew the eye with lovely head and ears, long neck, well set under front, excellent length of leg, outstanding condition and light free movement in all directions. A competitive second was sabled fawn spotted Majenkir Luna Flyte, another legged-up shapely girl with a fine package of breeder qualities.

The Veteran entry of 13, most in fine shape, was a testament to the efforts of breeders and care of owners. Many of the veterans would have been contenders in Best of Breed competition, and indeed two of them remained so.

7-10 years Veteran Dogs

Brindle spotted GCh. Katushka-Jubilee Movado moved his way to the head of the class, but also presented an elegant but masculine picture on the stack.

7-10 years Veteran Bitches

This very fine class of seven was a delight with several high-quality ladies. Striking tricolor Ch. Rising Star DiPaul Tzeitel JC, BN, RAEII had a beautiful head, excellent condition, and was free and sound all around. She went on to an Award of Merit and Best Veteran.

SPECIALTY CRITIQUE CONTINUED

10 years and over, Veteran Bitches Both Ch. Szzan's Mystic Cho Chang and Zimistrajia Savldai Soaringvelocity were lovely, typical and nicely conditioned for any age. The former won the class, and an Award of Merit on her grace and carriage, and length of stride complemented by a beautiful performance.

There was much depth of quality in Specials competition and nearly half made the first cut. The fourteen standing after the deeper cut included five dogs and nine bitches, in addition to Winners Dog and Bitch. Though they varied in style, each met the "whole dog" requirements to a high degree, had most of the finer details of type and moved freely. It was a pleasure to have Awards of Merit to recognize ten excellent Borzoi beyond the top four winners.

In the end, GCh. Aashtoria Wildhunt Hidden Agenda bested the field with a beautiful head, full mouth, superior front and shoulder, excellent angulation and carriage, and effortless movement in all directions. I looked past the distraction of untypical grooming that did no visual favors to some of his best points. The Winners Dog, and Select Dog, GCh. Aruzia Priority One JC were very worthy challengers for the top spot.

On the distaff side, GCh. Golightly Beau Soleil Lagniappe JC typified the classic feminine Borzoi bitch, with light easy gait, pretty head and lovely outline. The Select bitch, seven year old Ch. Kachina-Valeska Wind Dancer SC was more substantial, and in a heavily sabled plush red coat that made her excellent structure less apparent from a distance. Despite the difference in style, each made a package that was a delight to a breeder's eye.

I would like to express my appreciation to all the fanciers for sharing their dogs with me, my in-ring partner, steward Karen Mays, and the show committee for a job well done.

BCOA 2012 Nationals ASFA Coursing and LGRA Racing

by KC Thompson

There's nothing more spectacular than green grass, blue skies, a slowly moving river in the background, and fast dogs chasing plastic in the foreground. That scene is what BCOA 2012 Nationals coursing and racing participants brought away with them along with ribbons, prizes, and renewed friendships. Most stayed longer for the BCOA National shows and obedience classes. Others, like me, had to race back to Colorado for the American Sighthound Field Association (ASFA) International Invitational for 2012.

The BCOA ASFA competition began on Sunday. Although the entry was small, there was no shortage of talent on the field. With a park serving as the venue, the course layout was relatively technical—a requirement to get a good course into a fairly small space—but with the talented hounds present, the judges didn't have too much trouble picking out the ultimate winner. Ken Porter's Regius Let Me Take You There (Rio) dominated the open class prelims with a 153 vs the next highest open class borzoi with 151s, and carried his victory through to the finals, putting on an exciting demonstration of follow, agility, and enthusiasm. In the field champion class, Tom and KC Thompson-Golcher's BIF FC Zoiboyz Durango SC FCh owned the course. Unfortunately, capitalizing on a brief moment when the lure got a little close during the finals, Durango risked all in a classic borzoi move called the "bossack," capturing the lure but taking a pretty severe tumble in the process. He was up and on the run immediately—impressing the judges with an equally extreme finish, earning the highest points of the day. Unfortunately, during cool out between finals and the BOB runoff, it was clear that he'd damaged tendons in his hip and was unable to compete in the BOB runoff with Rio and veteran class winner DC Gladkii Veter Matter of Taste, MC, LCX2 (Raven) owned by Roy Silguero and Curtis Judd. All borzoi entered were excellent coursers and thrilling to watch according to several visitors who travelled from Seattle just to witness borzoi in action. Congratulations to Rio and Ken Porter for a terrific win.

BCOA straight-racing (LGRA) began the next day—and involved both modern technology and good cooperation among participants to pull it off. Dawn Hall, the meet secretary, ran the meet from Weeping Water NE, providing advice and guidance to Carol Enz and KC Thompson, from laying out the field to making sure the scores were correctly annotated and the programs drawn accordingly. Folks who've participated in LGRA know that through the magic of applied arithmetic (and maybe higher calculus), the fastest dog seems to win, but how the formula works, most don't know much less challenge. Thankfully, Dawn, who does understand, connected with Carol and KC via cell phone. No surprise, there were some really quick hounds represented on the field and the four finish line judges had real challenges trying to accurately identify the colors of the hounds' blankets as they crossed the finish line, sprinting hard after the squawker. Ultimately prevailing over the competition, despite losing program 2 to the Rey and Yvonne McGehee's brilliant girl Valeska Splendor in the Grass (Graza), Tom and KC Thompson-Golcher's Zoiboyz Eclipse of the Heart won high score borzoi during this year's BCOA LGRA competition and high score lure courser—and became a new GRC in the process. Graza took the high score opposite sex and high score FTE (first time entered). Cynthia and Amelia Gredys Ch Jubilee Glacier Ozlandia GRC SC (Landon) was high score conformation champion and high score racing champion.

Congratulations again to Rio, Eclipse, Graza, Landon, Raven, and to all the borzoi demonstrating such excellence in action at the 2012 BCOA national. Also—congratulations to the organizers, the host club, and the visitors. Finally, special congratulations to those owners who came early to the BCOA 2012 national shows to reveal to a national audience, their beautifully-built borzois' capacity for speed and action with "...sound running gear, strong neck and jaws, courage and agility, combined with proper condition."

2012 BCOA National Sweepstakes Critique

By Carol "KC" Artley

Thank you for the honor of judging the puppies and veterans. It was exciting to see so many beautiful puppies, with well angulated fronts and rears, dark eyes, complete black pigment, and that soft intelligent expression. Nearly all the puppies had proper bites and full dentition. Their coats were of the proper silky texture. They had a variety of topline and head styles. The puppies shown at this year's national were so promising, that the future of our breed looks bright. I had fun judging, but I sure wished I could have given out more first place ribbons, than just one first per class.

6-9 month Males (4 in class).

1. Tosch Jubilee Oberon - A self red-brindle, with beautiful dark eyes. He had proper proportions, carried his tail down, and moved with good reach and drive. Also had a good down and back, with no crossing and no pastern flipping. Strongest rear in this class. .
2. Horse & Hound Bellagio - White & gold spotted, with excellent shoulder layback and a long upper arm set back properly. Attractive head and expression.
3. Horse & Hound Tuscany Radost - White & gold spotted, with a beautiful head. Best forechest in this class.
4. Jubilee Tosch Ganymede - White with red brindle spots, this promising puppy had complete dark pigment, and efficient movement.

9-12 month Males (12 in class)

1. Vitrina Ticonderoga (Best Opposite Sex) - a self red-gold, he had the right amount of bone for his height. Had a long lean head, with excellent black pigment, and expression. He was well angulated, and combined with a proper topline, he had great reach and drive that was smooth and effortless. Also had sufficient rib spring, a good forechest and good depth of chest.
2. Katushka's Gauguin - a tall tan-brindle, he had excellent length of neck and carried his head up proudly. He was well trained and handled at a smooth collected trot that showed off his nice balanced side movement. He also had good strong movement on the down & back. I loved his style of head, and he nearly won this class.
3. Zooropa Kenai Col Solare - a white & gray sable spotted male who moved with powerful drive. He had a pleasing outline with curves in all the right places.
4. Kinobi Lusso Silver Spur - a self gray sable with balanced proportions. Excellent, efficient movement on the down and back.

12-15 month Males. A class of 3 excellent yearlings.

1. Ch Aashtoria Aruzia Java Chip - a tall elegant male, with red-sable spots. I loved his style of head, his lean back skull, strong underjaw, proper high set ears, and his soft intelligent expression. He was good moving, both from the side, and down and back. Won the class on his excellent topline. He was a stronger contender for best in sweeps.

2. Aashtoria Toffee Temptation - Another handsome, red sabled male with excellent movement, he was almost identical to the first place dog.
3. Jubilee Renaissance Visions - a dark brindle dog, he had a pleasing outline, as well as good movement.

15-18 month Males

1. Aashtoria's Iced Mocha - a white & tan male with a partial black mask. Had a lovely soft expression with his black pigment. Won this class on his side movement.
2. Bee Hunter Matrioshka - a masculine white & red dog, with a nice outline.

6-9 month Females (15 in class).

This was an overwhelming class to judge, because of the high quality and consistency of type, of these puppies.

1. Horse & Hound L'Aquila Radost (Best In Sweeps). This white and red-gold spotted female caught my eye as soon as she walked into the ring. She looked like she was just 6 months old, but she had the poise of an adult. Every time she was asked to move, she did so, smoothly and efficiently. She had the topline I prefer, along with good forechest, depth of chest, and balance. She was well angulated but not over angulated in the rear. I was pleased that she won her class the next day under Patti Neale.
2. Horse & Hound Venezia - a beautiful white and gold female with black eyes and complete black pigment. Excellent mover and very similar in quality and type, to the other 3 puppies who placed.
3. Zabava Jubilee Edelweiss - a white & tan-sable spotted female. She was very happy in the ring, but nicely showed off her good movement. She had the black pigment, black eyes, and proper ears, combined with excellent reach and drive.
4. Horse & Hound Sarzna Radost - another pretty white & cream spotted female. She had excellent shoulder layback with a long upper arm. Also had good forechest and depth of chest.

9-12 month Females (14 class)

Another class with a great many excellent puppies.

1. Adrienne Bella Luna Once Upon a Time - A confident, showy, white and cream female, who had the look of "I'm having fun and I am the best in the ring". She was well angulated but not over angulated in the rear. She had balance, a topline I prefer, and beautiful head and expression. When she wasn't jumping and trying to get her handler to move faster, she demonstrated that she had sound efficient movement.
2. Vitrina Saratoga - a dark brindle female with great reach and drive. Also had good forechest and depth of chest.
3. Konstantin's Summer Rain - A lovely white and gold female, with a beautiful lean head.

- Excellent moving.
4. Bucksilver's Written in the Stars - a tall white female with red brindle spots. Excellent front with a long upper arm. Good pigment. Lean head.

12-15 month Females.

1. Majenkir Electra Mayhem at Varykino - a classic white female with complete black pigment. Had ideal shoulder layback, a chest down to the elbow, and proper rib spring for her size.
2. Aashtoria Aruzia Cookie Dough - This white and red-sable beauty had a lean chiseled head with the proper Roman nose, and small high set ears. Excellent side movement.
3. Aashtoria Berried Treasure - a lovely red sable with a nice head and good movement.
4. Oxota Avalon Lady Beretta - a substantial self gray brindle female with black eyes, and efficient movement.

15-18 month Females.

1. My Majenkir Regal Vixen of Varykino - a nicely balanced white and red female, with a chest to the elbow and proper rib spring for her height. Moved strongly and smoothly on the down and back.
2. Aashtoria Svora Taiga Ice Queen - a tall, but elegant tri-colored female, with the best head in the class. Had excellent side movement.
3. Aashtoria's Fantasy on Ice - a tall, attractive female, she was very much like the second and fourth place females in this class. Good moving.
4. Aashtoria's Ice Maiden of Bonny Bairn - a pretty white and tan spotted female, with a lovely head and black pigment.

Veteran Sweepstakes.

I was happy to see so many veterans with proper breed type, sound movement and good muscle tone.

2012 BCOA NATIONAL FUTURITY CRITIQUE

By Mrs. Jana Brinlee

It was a lovely evening for judging the Futurity classes, with a relaxed pace reflected in the behavior of the young participants. The hospitality extended to me by Barbara O'Neill and the members of the Borzoi Club of America was gracious and much appreciated. Many thanks to Karen Mays, a capable and efficient ring steward, who kindly and pleasantly kept things running smoothly.

Before conveying individual entry comments, let me say my general impressions were very good. I had a nice breadth of type and ages to consider and I was pleased to see great improvement in some troublesome areas from years past. Overall soundness has very much improved. You may have noticed me looking at teeth, well, the breed is in good shape! I found but one off bite in the bunch. I realize that many of the youngsters were still in the teething stage and I accounted for this in my assessments, but hoped to give all the entries a good experience on which to build their show careers.

6-9 Puppy Dogs

- 1st - #8 A handsome, rather tall youngster, white with sable brindle. He is possessed of a pretty head with beautiful eyes and expression. His movement was easy on the go round, true coming and going, and he held a pretty shape.
- 2nd - #6 A red brindle dog who turned out to be a littermate to the first place. This dog is a bit smaller and went second to his brother as he didn't reach quite as well in the front as the winner.
- 3rd & 4th - #'s 14 and 15 respectively. I apologize, my recorder cut off (probably operator error) and so my remarks are lost

9-12 Puppy Dogs

- 1st - #21 A white and sable brindle, a youngster with beautiful scope of body, nice dark eyes, nice feet, pretty head, who moved easily both around and coming and going.
- 2nd - #24 A beautiful gold and white with nice shape and beautiful veining on his face. Not quite as easy on the move, but nearly so.
- 3rd - #22 A white and black who is a little shorter coupled. He didn't move quite as easily as the winner but is a pretty type dog.
- 4th - #34 A large tri puppy dog, heavily marked. This dog has a lot of bone, with a beautiful eye. His front feet aren't his fortune, at least on the day, and I'd like to see him a little curvier over the croup.

12-15 Dogs

- 1st - #42 A black and white with cute freckles on his nose. He is rather short coupled in style, clean going away, very shapely and a big mover on the side. A very handsome fellow.

Senior Dogs 21-24 months

- 1st - #44 A tri-color dog, moderate in make. He moves decently around and is fairly sound coming and going.

6-9 Puppy Bitches

- 1st - #61 A white with light gold, a really lovely bitch, very balanced, moves light on her feet, pretty veining, nice dark eyes and beautiful feet.
- 2nd - #57 Another white with gold head markings, typey bitch, lost to the winner on front action. Her front feet are down right now, I suspect teething the culprit, but she has beautiful veining and shows promise.
- 3rd - #55 White and gold, nearly apricot colored, larger girl. She has a lot of bone but retains her prettiness. Would like her to have more curve over the croup and more rear angle.
- 4th - #49 A white and apricot with sable head and freckles. This girl didn't do herself any favors in the movement department. She's a beautiful type but just didn't want to show herself off to her best advantage on the day.

9-12 Bitches

- 1st - #67 A white and gold, really shapely who got better as the class went on. She has pretty feet, a beautiful headpiece, and is light on her feet. A very nice bitch especially in this age range.
- 2nd - #64 A whitish bitch with a cobbler build. She's really pretty and she caught my eye right off the bat and I thought her the one to beat. I really like this bitch and she pressed the winner hard; I wish she had really turned it on. Turns out she is a littermate to the winner.
- 3rd - #82 A gold with white trim bitch in a different style from the two previous. Light and easy on her feet. Nice headpiece more in line with the old Collie look, sound, with a beautiful temperament.
- 4th - #4 A Tri bitch, nice scope to her body while retaining a lovely shape. Unfortunately, she was less than enthusiastic when asked to move.

12-15 Bitches

- 1st - #87 An oyster brindle girl with nice scope to her body, and a beautiful headpiece and eye. She had a nice way of going but has a bit much bone for my preference.
- 2nd - #84 A white bitch, easy on her feet with a beautiful head and eye with less scope of body. My toughest class with two very different styles of bitches, each a quality bitch in her own right with different things to like.

15-18 Bitches

- 1st - #88 A white and red, really, really pretty type. Nice bend of stifle, nice bone, clean coming and going. Nice going around as well. I liked this bitch considerably.

Senior Bitches 21-24

- 1st - #95 Mostly a self gold, a nice honest bitch, nothing fancy about her. A little plain in head for my preference but with a nice dark eye, good feet, real pretty coat, efficient in movement, good croup. One of the types of bitches you like to keep because you suspect she'll produce for you.

2nd - #93 A sable and white bitch with a cute look about her. She was stylish but tended to break in her front action when she got going.

Best in Futurity

When the class winners came in my eye was immediately drawn to the bitches as I liked them all including the baby. It came between the 15-18 #88 and the 9-12 #67. Both are very nice bitches in their own right. Although different styles, they were both beautiful and I would have been happy to take either home with me (I wish). In the end, I preferred the headpiece on the 9-12 bitch and after several trips around the ring, she sealed it with a smooth and steady performance to win the night. She's a lovely girl whom I was pleased to award Best in Futurity.

Best Opposite Sex went to the flashy Junior Dog #42 from the 12-15 month class. He's a big boy with a big sidegait and showy presence. I was pleased to award him Best Opposite.

Stud Dog

This was an interesting class although but two entries. I recalled the babies who stood proudly behind their sire and remembered the numerous good qualities I had observed in them earlier in the evening. The class went to #97. As it turned out, the other dog in the class had sired the class winner so it was all in the family.

Brood Bitch

The recorder operator must have failed again and I sincerely apologize. I have no notes on this class. The winner was #99.

I want you to know that I was honored to be selected by the breeders of these youngsters. Thank you for the beautiful entry. The future is bright for Borzoi. I was very pleased to see where you breeders have taken Borzoi—I can see it's in good hands. My heartiest congratulations to you.

I truly enjoyed myself. Many thanks to the club and exhibitors for a wonderful evening.
