Observations and Critique of the 2015 Borzoi Club of America National Specialty

By Anne Midgarden, DVM

I had an excellent entry of Borzoi to judge in Huron, Ohio for the 2015 Borzoi Club Of America's national specialty show. I found many qualities in each hound that were indicative of Borzoi type and beauty. I am honored that my fellow Borzoi breeders brought out their best. In 2014 I judged the Borzoi Yearly in Germany as well as the Australian Borzoi National, so I was particularly pleased to see the American Borzoi holding their own with the rest of the world.

I was quite impressed with all the exhibitors and hounds and enjoyed every minute in the ring. Most hounds were well presented and most Borzoi had the self-confident temperament that reflects the courage called for in the standard. Many exhibitors could have done a better job showing bites and teeth by peeling back all the lips and pointing the mouth toward the judge but I expect this to improve with practice. A few hounds were over groomed and some were still wet from a recent bath; and although this did not affect my judging, I do hope this is not going to be a trend in the Borzoi ring.

As I judge I looked particularly for exceptional qualities specific to Borzoi rather than generic show dog features. I placed a great emphasis on balance, outline, unmistakable elegance and sound running gear: long arched loin, tight connective tissue and bladed bone. Borzoi with loose, clunky or weedy construction did not advance. Secondly I looked for soundness in structure as indicated by powerful and deep jaws with strong clean teeth (broad scissors bites with very few missing teeth) as well as parallel limbs with clean movement. Each and every Borzoi who made the first cut possesses the majority of these qualities and is therefore an excellent example of the breed.

Veteran Dog 9-10 Class Winner: Ch. Téine Pavo at Happy Hobbits, SC, owner: Sandra L. Gillen. A wonderful self-sable veteran that had a certain 'aire' about him. He had a lovely neck that tied into a nice laid back shoulder which also tied into an equally impressive upper arm and front assembly. A deep chest with top and underlines that can't be faulted. His loin was strong and hips wide and strong. His bend of stifle and long, strong second thigh told of a career that surely included conformation and coursing (which is evident by the titles in his name).

Veteran Dog 10 and over Class Winner: GCH. Scheremetjew Porsche Targa, SC, CGC, owners: Karin Johnson & Julia Johnson, MD. How could one not be in love with dogs over 10! What a true gentleman this white and apricot hound is. He carried himself with dignity and power. Again, a lovely neck flowing into a nice laid back shoulder and front assembly. Deep in the chest and strong in the hindquarters (at 11!).

Veteran Bitch 7-8 Class Winner: GCH. Raynbo's Regal Rose, owners: Roni and Jennifer Zucker. A lovely typey white bitch with a purposeful, ground-covering stride, lovely front assembly and a strong, well muscled rear with just the right bend in stifle and wide hocks. Her head and expression were a beautiful addition to her nicely conditioned body.

Veteran Bitch 8-9 Class Winner: CH. Katz Fifth Avenue Fashion, JC, owners: Kitty and Jimmy Sawyer. A balanced red sable bitch with red ticking. She moved easily around the ring and had a nice down and back. A pretty head with lovely high set, rose shaped ears. Good length of neck, long upper arm with good return and a strong hind quarters.

Veteran Bitch 9-10 Class Winner: GCH. Zabava Tiramisu, owners: Irina Terra and Kristina Terra. A beautiful white and gold bitch in flawless condition. Her lovely head and expression flowed into a strong long neck set on a well laid back shoulder and attached to a correspondingly appropriate upper arm. Fantastic forechest and lovely underline. Her hindquarters were well muscled and her bend in stifle and strong second thigh spoke the word power, which was evident by her athletic, ground-covering sidegait. She demanded attention with her presence and got it each time she entered the ring.

Veteran Bitch 10 and over Class Winner & Best Opposite Sex in Sweepstakes: Ch. Wild Hunt Roman Candle, SC, RN, owner: G. Ariel Duncan. In a class of beautiful, sound, worthy Borzoi it was an uplifting sight to behold, watching these rock solid 'vintage' bitches float around the ring with their game faces on. The winner of this class, a beautifully conditioned white and apricot bitch, never gave up an inch of ground. She was beautifully proportioned, a lovely head, underjaw, strong long neck set into balanced shoulders and upper arm. Her topline and underline were correct and well muscled. A good spring of rib complimented her equally nice hindquarters and strong running gear. Her sidegait was positively ground-covering and she moved like she could trot for miles. She never gave up and in the end stole the BOSS ribbon and ran.

In closing, I want to thank the BCOA membership for their votes to allow me the honor of judging the National Specialty Sweepstakes. Thank you to Joyce Katona and the National Specialty committees for all their hard work and making me feel right at home before, during and after my assignment. Special thanks to Barbara O'Neill, Show Secretary, Karen Mays, my amazing Chief Ring Stewart, and Ron Williams; Assistant Ring Stewart. Last but not least, thank you to all the breeders and owners who entered their awesome Borzoi in the 2015 BCOA National Specialty!

PUPPY SWEEPSTAKES

On any given day Borzoi puppies grow and change at rates that are individual and specific to each puppy. My criteria for judging this exciting entry of youngsters, knowing from day to day they can be in various growth spurts, was to look for those qualities that tend to remain constant such as: spring of rib, shoulder layback and return of upper arm, a deep chest, flexible topline, a strong loin and appropriately wide hips. The first place puppy in each of the age categories had many, if not all of these qualities. The second – fourth placements also had many of these important attributes.

In the overall entry, teeth were clean and scissor bites were the norm. There were only a limited number of missing teeth. On the subject of teeth, I urge all handlers and breeders to practice showing the mouth to judges! I was pleased to see sound, social and happy puppies, strong pasterns and feet, pretty outlines and clean movement. A concern was a significant percentage of youngsters with extremely straight shoulders and upper arms with little forechest. Another concern was the narrow (slab sided) thoracic cavity. A running hound needs good lung capacity and room for all the internal organs.

What brought the winners (and those placing) to my attention in each class were their front assemblies – neck, shoulders, forechest, upper arms. Good spring of rib, wide strong loins, lovely heads and expression, and that beautiful ground covering reach and drive that to me completely defines “Borzoi”.

6-9 Dog Sweeps Winner: Karanoff Xanthos, owner: Karen S. Klein PhD. A handsome, Irish-marked, red puppy. He caught my eye early on. Upon exam he had a nice expression, black pigment, good underjaw, lovely head, with a strong neck that attached into a correctly laid-back shoulder. The spring of rib, forechest and upper arm also earned the same evaluation. The topline was correct and tied into a muscled loin and a strong powerful rear. He moved with purpose and from such a young dog had an impressive ground covering stride. He was a strong contender for BISS.

9-12 Dog Sweeps Winner: Belozor Spellbound, owner: Susanne Liggett. A self cream with a good head and neck set on correctly to a nicely laid back shoulder and front assembly. A solid puppy with nice depth of chest, well sprung ribs, good strong thigh and second thigh. He had a smooth, comfortable gait both from the side and down and back, and to top it off a handsome profile, expression and lovely rose ears set perfectly.

12-15 Dog Sweeps Class Winner: Kachina Vision of Love, owner: Carol Enz. Irish-marked

sable dog with a classic expression, a beautiful neck, shoulder and complete front assembly that moved him to the front of this class. He gaited around the ring using all his body in harmony with good reach and drive. He was clean on the down and back. Would have liked to see a touch more bend in stifle and a bit more topline. He earned this placement.

15-18 Dog Sweeps Class Winner & Best in Sweepstakes: Maskova’s Heart of the Rose Svershin, owners: Terry Doane and Elizabeth & Jim Szymanski. Usually an awkward age for male Borzoi, this was not the case for this white and apricot youngster. He took command of the ring in the first go around. Upon exam he was impressive, with all the parts flowing together correctly from head to tail. He was strong, athletic and powerful yet graceful. A good sized male, he exemplified all the characteristics I mentioned looking for in the opening paragraphs.

6-9 Bitch Sweeps Class Winner: Raynbo Dancella Primrose, owners: Roni & Jennifer Zucker and Linda Barad. A lovely white puppy that is balanced and athletic. She had a pretty face, lovely expression and profile. Her neck flowed into a well laid back shoulder which tied into an upper arm of the same quality. Complimenting the nice front was a good topline, strong loin and well muscled rear. She had good reach and drive from the side and a clean down and back.

9-12 Bitch Sweeps Class Winner: Karitonova Majenkir First Time in Forever, owners: Kimberley A Horn-Janek, Robert Janek, Karen Staudt-Cartabona. This pretty white bitch had embedded quality, beautifully packaged together. Lovely head, her neck and shoulders flowed into a well-muscled back and loin. She had just the right amount of spring of rib. She had an easy going, ground-covering stride that gave her the edge to win this class.

12-15 Bitch Sweeps Class Winner: Kyrov-Katz My Oh My at Horse and Hound, owner: Pamela Buffington. A tri-color powerful bitch with a beautiful neck and nicely set on shoulders. A worthy forechest as well as good spring of rib and appropriate return of upper arm combined with her strong loin and powerful rear which gave her an athletic and ground covering stride.

15-18 Bitch Sweeps Class Winner & Best Opposite Sex in Sweepstakes: Sylvan Miranda, owners: Christopher & Patti Neale. Upon exam this white and sable bitch was well muscled, had a lovely neck set on appropriate shoulders with a corresponding return of upper arm and a respectable forechest. She was deep chested with a good topline that flowed into a nicely muscled loin and hindquarters. She had a ground covering, athletic stride. This nicely put together bitch won the Best Opp award with her maturity, athleticism, structural qualities and easy ground-covering movement.

VETERAN SWEEPSTAKES

The Veteran Borzoi represent a lifetime of achievements, experience, companionship combined with athletic bodies and longevity. Veterans may have proven themselves in one or all realms of competition: conformation, lure coursing, obedience, agility and open field. All of them earned the respect of their breeders, owners, judges and contemporaries.

The Borzoi entered in this year’s Veteran Sweepstakes were fabulous. With each advancing age category the dogs and bitches just seemed ageless. The competition was stiff from age 7 to age 10 plus! These Borzoi were out to compete and win. ALL the Borzoi were in outstanding musculature, energetic and had beautiful conformation. Every single one of these Borzoi deserved that first place ribbon. Especially the bitch classes, where it was difficult to tell the over 10 year olds from the 7 year olds. The hardest thing I had to do was make the choice between these fine animals and pick one in each class to be first. The second hardest decision was then narrowing the field to award a Best Veteran and Best Opp Veteran in Sweeps.

Veteran Dog 7-8 Class Winner: GCH Avalyn’s Magnum Force, owners: Lynne Bennett and Barbaranne Benjamin. A handsome silver brindle and white hound was an outstanding example of the breed. His lovely neck flowed into a beautifully laid back shoulder which attached to nice front assembly. His topline and underline could not be faulted. A well muscled loin, strong hind-quarter, long and strong second thigh, low wide hocks completed the picture. His movement was clean, with lovely reach and drive.

Veteran Dog 8-9 Class Winner & Best Veteran in Sweepstakes: GCH Aashtoria Wildhunt Hidden Agenda, CGC, owner: Robin K. Riel. This impressive white and gold Borzoi is a strong, athletic, stallion of a hound. In rock hard condition, he owned the turf he stood on. A beautiful head and neck that flowed into a beautifully laid back shoulder with a corresponding built upper arm. His front assembly felt under exam as good as it performed in motion. His deep chest, topline and underline are correct. A strong well muscled loin set on a strong hind-quarter with a nice bend of stifle and strong low hocks.
