MORE COVER ART NEEDED!
Arturo Santini is this woman walking her wearing her fur stole about to take her streamlined “woman’s glass globe skirt. This 17 woman that as a smaller figure that comes figurine just the same. Another short lived production, this rare piece is valued at around $225 and depicts a very classy art deco dressed woman and materials, this is another Austin Sculpture and Borzoi. Can you imaging a statue similar to this that has a woman standing with a panther in the same pose. Some sellers mistake it for a dog, and I have to chuckle when I see it marked as such. Due to its short lived production, this is valued between $200-250

Keeping up with the large and trying to show different types and materials, this is another Austin Sculpture from their acrylic line. This is titled Evening Walk and depicts a very classy art deco dressed woman wearing her fur stole about to take her streamlined and highly stylized Borzoi for a walk. Thankfully we don’t see this type of Borzoi in the show ring or on the coursing field, but it makes for a beautiful figurine just the same. Another short lived production, this rare piece is valued at around $225 and measures 17” tall.

Many of you may be familiar with this lovely Royal Dux porcelain that is more recent to the market. When it first became available in the 1990s, Gwen Post and I discussed how we needed to hurry and purchase before they disappeared. Well, turns out they made quite a few of them and the price bottomed for awhile. They are finally making a comeback from the original overrun and is a must have for any serious colllector. It measures 14” tall and has the look of the older type Royal Dux pieces. In fact, a mutual friend of Gwen’s and min, Joyce Brandin (deceased) bought one before we

Here is an Austin Sculpture simply titled “Fashionable.” While it appears to be bronze, it is simply a color “washed” onto the material that is similar to plaster but has metal mixed into it making it a more heavy and heavy piece. Measuring a nice 20” tall, this figure was produced for a very short period of time. There is a statue similar to this that has a woman standing with a panther in the same pose. Some sellers mistake it for a dog, and I have to chuckle when I see it marked as such. Due to its short lived production, this is valued between $200-250

Moving on to actual porcelain from a world-renown company is a Lladro figurine that was erroneously named Woman with Greyhound. I’ve never seen a greyhound with this much hair. On the homely side, this Borzoi is certainly not show quality, but perhaps it could course a hare or two. It measures 16” tall and it arrived broken when it was shipped to me back in the early 90s. Rather than toss it out, I glued it back together where I could and just display it at the back of one of my cabinets. Production was only a couple years on this piece and valued at $250.

Lest we forget the other lovely Lladro figurine titled Promenade is the woman walking her Afghan Hound and Borzoi. Can you imagine the hair floating around in a house with those two dogs! It baffles me that so many people say they don’t care for this piece when, in fact, I find it lovely. The original price on this figure was $795. I found it for less several years ago, but I believe the price of $750 still holds today for this large 15” porcelain statue. It has the typical soft blue colors to it that resemble the Danish company of Bing & Grondahl.

That ends our Unique Zoitiques discussion for this quarter. To me, big means more valuable; however, that doesn’t necessarily mean it does to you. It is harder to place these types of figurines in the house as you run out of room quicker. So perhaps next time I will take it down a size and write about something smaller. I just never know what I will write about until the last minute. If you think of something, give me a shout out! Take care and always love and hug your Borzoi. We are all so lucky to be part of their lives.

Welcome to “Dogshow Debrief” from the 2016 AKC National Championship in Orlando! For those who missed the show or the flitting social media newsbytes, we hope you’ll enjoy these observations on the venue, summaries of conformation results, introduction to a few Borzoi art vendors and photos of BCOA “Meet the Breeds”. Our members made us proud!

Grooming space, like a same-zipcode parking spot, was also worth its weight in platinum. According to Show Sight columnist Caroline Coile, it could only be obtained by overnight camping in line “just like the good old days waiting for Grateful Dead tickets” (Bribery may have been another distinct possibility!)

Nonetheless, all Borzoi managed to look impeccably turned out and their handlers remarkably elegant, even with last-minute wardrobe changes to avoid clashing with the dilute-ketchup-colored carpet installed by Royal Canin for their inaugural sponsorship of this 16-year event. The color did nothing for either human or canine complexion, although somewhat more forgiving to the white Borzoi population than to the glorious red dogs whose coats in previous years had been offset spectacularly by a complementary Cerulean Blue (No wonder everyone still wants to call this event “Eukanuba”!)

The first Borzoi ring debut for the Championship weekend, Friday’s NOHS Finals had the largest entry of Borzoi qualifiers since the event began in 2012. Judged by esteemed hound judge Col. Joe Purkhiser, the two dogs and three bitches entered were all shown by current or incoming BCOA members. (see page 5, Fall 2016 issue)

Best of Breed was awarded to Cindy & Mike Michalak’s young male, GCh Lagniappe Cajun Zydeco Bon-Ton (GCH Jubilee Tadbit O’Brindle Mist - GCHB Golightly Beau Soleil Lagniappe JC), bred by members Dee & Greg Jones and shown exclusively by Cindy. Zydeco is still only a youngster!

He became an AKC Champion at 13 months old, earned the GCH just over 6 months later and attained the Bronze at less than three years of age. A very determined lady, Cindy set her sights on obtaining an invitation to NOHS Finals, seeking out and attending only shows that offered NOHS competition, earning numerous BOBOH awards and several NOHS Hound group wins, completing the season with Zydeco ranked #1 Owner-Handled Male Borzoi for the event year. She greatly enjoyed the whirlwind affair. At home, Cindy’s “sweet baby boy” enjoys hiking and swimming, with a particular interest in fishing. He loves to stalk fish in the lakes and rivers near their home in Tennessee and according to Cindy, when he spots a fish his tail begins to wag, he gets a smile on his face and then dives in after it. To date Zydeco has not yet brought home dinner but he will likely perfect his skills in the years ahead!

Best of Opposite Sex, offered for the first time this year, was awarded to breeder/owner/handlers Colleen Boyle and Pauline Coe’s smiling girl Stevie (GCH Roscommon Landslide by CH Abidjan’s Q Ladavaz Ferlinka SC - CH Roscommon Mustang Sally), handled by Colleen. Stevie is at the other end of the age spectrum. Spectators could never have guessed her vintage as she floated effortlessly around the ring! After her prestigious Select Bitch win at the 2016 Westminster Kennel Club show, she took the summer off, returning to the ring in the fall of 2016 to resume her winning record. She earned multiple Best of Breed and Owner-Handled Group wins, as well as several regular Group placements. In fact, Stevie was rarely defeated whenever she was in the ring! Colleen and Pauline would like to acknowledge Cathy Nasierowski, Abidjan Borzoi, and her long, successful breeding program. Sadly for the Borzoi world, Cathy passed away unexpectedly in 2016. According to Colleen, Cathy’s experience, foresight and encouragement were instrumental in bringing Stevie’s parents together. She also helped the Roscommon team to evaluate their litters and loved to hear the show news even during her last months of illness. Cathy is deeply missed by all who knew her in the breed.

Breeder/owner/handler Patti Neale was also in the ring with NOHS #1 GCHS Sylvan Silver Springbok(CH Steppelands Final Mikhail Of Abidjan - GCH Sylvan Vitrina Finian’s Rainbow JC). According to Patti, Spring has been a breeder’s delight. Her show ring accomplishments have encompassed practically every goal one could want: Best of Breed at the 2013 National Specialty and at Westminster Kennel Club in 2014, an all-breed Best in Show in 2013, a #1 ranking and many other group and specialty honors.

I would appreciate receiving any of their contact information which would allow me to invite them and their family to join the Borzoi Club of America. was only shown during the first half of 2016 but was undefeated at the all-breed shows she attended. Before resuming her show career in 2016, Spring spent much of 2015 raising a litter of 11 beautiful puppies. Outside the ring, she has also proven her skills as a carting dog, regularly giving children carriage rides at the AKC National Championship in Orlando. Patti has given her the title “Queen of our household, and especially the bed at home”.

Incoming member Jill Venturo showed her NOHS #7 GCHB Phaedra Udo Have The Key To My Heart JC CGC (Ch Phaedra Tamerlane - Ch Phaedra Esperanza), bred by members Carol Kubiak-Zamora & Kevin Shimel, DVM. For a first-time dog show handler, Jill has done great things with Udo, especially in light of the fact that he and his littermate Marco, also from Phaedra, are her family’s very first Borzoi! Whelped in April, 2012, Udo earned his Championship at just over two years old, going on to earn his Grand less than a year later, his Bronze slightly over a year after that and now making rapid progress toward the Silver. Jill and her team were very pleased and proud of their boy when he landed in the #7 position for Owner-Handled Borzoi in 2016! Throughout the journey, Jill states that Udo was very patient and forgave her “many mistakes as a novice” while she honed her conformation handling skills. She soon learned to present him to his best advantage, consistently earning breed wins against strong competition. According to Jill, Udo is a blessing in her life. He and Marco enjoy vacations with the family and his favorite pastimes are “chasing his brother around our yard and sitting on our loveseat following our every move with his eyes.” Last but certainly not least, one of Udo’s greatest accomplishments is sealing Jill’s passion and love for the Borzoi breed. She never ceases to be amazed at the “unique, elegant, graceful and somewhat independent Borzoi”. So welcome to the Borzoi World, Jill. We are happy you could join us!

NOHS #8, the multi-talented Paloma (GCHB DC Chihawk Maschas Dream Of The Wildhunt RA SC CGCA by GCHS Aashtoria Wildhunt 4 Your I’s Only RA x CH Chihawk Stealing Home JC), was bred by Tami & Peggy Marshall and handled by owner Valerie Holmes, cheered from ringside by co-owner Ariel Duncan and from the kennel at home, by co-owner Ralph Jamison. Paloma also earned Second Award of Merit from Dr. John Reeve-Newson in the National Championship breed ring the following day. Paloma is more than just a pretty face! She has earned the BCOA Versatility Lifetime Achievement award for her accomplishments in lure coursing, conformation and obedience and was the winner of the prestigious Dual Champion Stakes at the 2015 BCOA National Specialty. According to co-owner Ariel Duncan, Paloma likes to do things her own way. In straight-racing she prefers to enter the starting box backwards, flip around to face the door, then catch the field from behind and she is not embarrassed to have been fired from her ballet debut in Giselle when, much to the amusement of the audience, she decided to sit down during the famous hunt scene. Despite her Giselle performance, Paloma is quite the media star in other venues. She was invited to appear on the red carpeted steps of the New York Public Library for The Knopf Publishing House 100th Anniversary Celebration where she cordially greeted all the guests, including many Nobel and Pulitzer prize-winning literary legends. She has also appeared in Vogue, Vanity Fair, The New York Times, Women’s Wear Daily, Town and Country, and the Observer. Paloma has even appeared in the Wall Street Journal, so whenever she finds time to take a break from her other activities, watch for her stock market picks in 2017!

For a break between NOHS and the Saturday events, Royal Canin hosted their first “Regalia” party on Friday night. The location – a better-kept secret than the Da Vinci Code – still managed to attract a fair number of guests. Determined to capitalize on the opportunity for a free meal and the promise of dancing, dog show participants in cocktail attire schlepped another mile outdoors along the deserted loading dock, then snaked their way through the pitch dark backstage area behind the evening group ring to find their way to the door.

Our efforts were rewarded at the entrance by “Southern Hospitality” from the Royal Canin staff and a lovely red rose boutonniere. Subtle candlelight on gracefully decorated cocktail tables thankfully obscured both the color of the carpet and the bags under exhibitors’ eyes. Although the band turned out to be Country-Western (a.k.a. “Not-Real-Music”), several guests took the dare to join a line dance and by ignoring servers’ claims that the foodstuffs surrounding the numerous fried selections were merely “decoration”, a few of us discovered tasty grilled vegetables concealed in the corners of the tureens.

Borzoi ring time on Saturday was a civilized 10:10 AM. The entry, judged by long-time Borzoi breeder Dr. John Reeve-Newson (Kishniga) was one of the largest in the Hound Group, drawing 26 participants; three class entries and 10 specials in dogs, with 11 bitch specials and two bitches entered in the classes. Only one Borzoi was absent and BCOA members garnered ribbons beginning to end.

From the classes, Winners bitch Golightly Daydream At Echovesna was bred by Marcella Zobel and owned by Henri Goldner. All four Award of Merit winners were bred, owned and/or handled by members of our Club: JAM4 Jada’s team (CH Maskova’s Mascha Midnite Kiss Of The Wild Hunt RA JC CGC) included breeders Ariel Duncan, Ralph Jamison and Jim & Elisabeth Szymanski -- presented by Ariel in the ring. JAM3 went to CH Belisarius JP Ember presented by BCOA member Rhanda Glenn. Member Valerie Holmes handled her Paloma, previously shown in NOHS finals, to a JAM2. GCHG Crown Jewel Tatiana, bred/owned by member Jean Durdin, took JAM1.

Both Selects went to the Neales -- Chris took Select Dog with GCH Sylvan Carbon Steel and Patti’s GCHS Sylvan Silver Springbok, was Select Bitch as well as Best Bred-by Exhibitor. BOS Quinnie (CH Sedona Deja Debonnaire) was bred by BCOA member Tamara Carey. And BCOA 2016 National Specialty winner Lucy (GCHS Belisarius JP My Sassy Girl), bred by longtime BCOA supporter Kyoko Ozeki from Japan, won the Breed for the fourth time that week - going on to a Group 4 after three Group 1s and two Reserve Best in Shows.

When the Borzoi cleared the ring it was, of course, TIME... TO... SHOP!! Borzoi art pickings were slim this year but we were fortunate to find a unique and beautiful col-lage by French painter Martial Robin, featuring a stunning white Borzoi head study, superimposed over an antique newspaper photo of the last Russian Czar (heads up collectors - it may still be available for sale!!). He also illustrated Lee Canalizo’s new children’s book Peyton Goes to the Dogshow which both contributors were happy to sign on site. A lovely jewelry rendering of a tri Borzoi by enamel artist Bev Yokley also caught the eye, but we definitely need more Borzoi artists next year!

Breed participants and pals displayed their ambassadorial skills at the BCOA Meet the Breeds Booth throughout the weekend. With power tools in hand and enough construction material to build an in-law apartment, Chris Neale and his crew erected the architecturally impressive “Imperial Kennel” to house the Borzoi and their guests.

Around the booth, Borzoi lounged on animal skin rugs, napped in the kennel runs or leaned their lovely long heads on the many visitors who stopped by. And in one of the yearly highlights for all attendees at the show, Patti Neale entertained exhibitors’ children with rides around the venue in her glor-ious “Better-Than-Disney-World” Two Borzoi Open-Sleigh. Hey, Folks, this is Florida. When you have Borzoi, Red Roses and a Czarina, who needs Santa, reindeer and snow?

To be ranked #1 in any particular class at year's end only 1 score is needed.

New for 2016 is the offering of an OVERALL #1 dog in rally. Same rules apply to rally as to obedience. A minimum of 3 scores are needed to be the OVERALL #1 dog. All of the dogs scores from rally are averaged so if a dog competes in more than level all of his scores are rolled into one. Just like obedience, only 1 score is required to be #1 in any given class.

The #1 rally Borzoi for the year is Hemlock Hollow Aruzia Enjoy The Journey RN with an average score of 97.67. Owners C & P Danker.

We had a great turn-out (majors in both sexes for 3 of the 4-day cluster) with exhibitors coming from Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, and Kansas to show to 4 breeder-judges. It was also especially fun for many of us to gather and enjoy a traditional south Louisiana cuisine at Tunk’s. Calling All CHIC Borzoi!

Does Your Borzoi Have a CHIC Number? Great! You Can Win $200!

If your dog has a CHIC number and wins Best of Breed, Best of Opposite Sex, or Best in Triathlon at the BCOA National, you win $200! And if your puppy wins Best in Futurity at the National and both parents have their CHIC numbers, you also win $200!

This CHIC Award, initiated in 2005 to honor Dr. Asa Mays, recognizes breeders who test their dogs and are willing to share those results — good, bad or equivocal — with the public.

How Can Your Borzoi Get a CHIC Number?

First, your Borzoi must have some form of permanent identification such as a microchip or a tattoo.

Next, your Borzoi must have the following four screening tests recorded with the Orthopedic Foundation for Animals (OFA), with all results shared with the public:

- Eye screening by board certified veterinary ACVO Ophthalmologist using the OFA screening protocol.
- Autoimmune Thyroiditis screening through an OFA approved laboratory.
- Congenital Cardiac OFA screening (Now the Advanced Cardiac Database).
- Degenerative Myelopathy (DM) DNA screening through OFA.

If you choose, you can also include these two OPTIONAL test with your CHIC:

- Hip Dysplasia with an OFA hip evaluation or a PennHIP evaluation.
- Elbow Dysplasia using an OFA evaluation.

Remember, normal results are not required for a CHIC number. What is important is the willingness to share screening results openly with other breeders in the OFA database — thus helping all breeders make informed decisions for the betterment of the breed.

Once all required screening tests are submitted, processed and placed into the OFA database website, your dog will automatically received its CHIC number. Go to www.offa.org for more details for each of the above listed tests.

How Can Your Borzoi Who is DM Clear by Parentage Get a CHIC Number?

If your dog’s sire and dam are both registered with OFA as DM “Clear” your dog does not need to be tested for DM to get a CHIC number. However, you must officially register your dog as “Clear by Parentage” in order to get a CHIC number. Once this is done and the information appears on the OFA website, your dog will get a DM clearance number with the suffix of CBP (clear by parentage). The CHIC number will automatically be awarded at that time.

Only the offspring of DM-tested clear dogs can gain an OFA DM clearance without testing. Second generation dogs from four OFA DM Clear grandparents and OFA “Clear by Parentage” parents must be tested for DM to gain an OFA clearance and a CHIC number.
