Just A Reminder
Now that the Aristocrat is online, they can be color!
Send to savladai@borzoi.net
The Aristocrat will be published online on a quarterly basis. It will be posted on the BCOA website as a PDF so that you can print it if you like.

We will not be doing ads as part of the Aristocrat as we have the BCOA online ad feature already. The issues will include all the content that was previously included in the Aristocrat section of the Borzoi Connection (new title holders, statistics, articles from committee chairs and of course, annual awards and specialty results).

If you want to include BCOA TSE results and photos, contact Helen W. Lee at savladai@borzoi.net for information on how to submit the best quality photos.

The quarterly deadlines are: Feb. 15, May 15, Aug. 15 and Nov. 15. There will be a separate specialty issue each year (so that you do not have to wait until August for the results and photos). If you are interested in submitting an article, please contact Lydia Pruett to discuss.
The Eukanuba show has moved to the east coast after 5 years in California. The venue in Orlando was the Orange County convention center, which is a huge complex and we were lucky to find where we had to enter and find our spot for our MTB booth. After working on our display for many months, fitting everything in a small car, driving from Virginia to Florida and then actually assembling our exhibit was quite an experience.

Our theme this year was “From Russia with Love”. We attempted to show Borzoi in everyday situations and performance venues, fun and serious, by displaying poster-sized photos of these activities. Without the generosity of the photographers who donated fabulous photos, we would not have been able to make our booth a success.

Of course, we had Borzoi there to meet and greet passersby; willing and waiting for pats and compliments and being the sweet dogs that they are. They were a big hit. Several Borzoi owners were very willing to share themselves and their Borzoi for many hours both days. We all had lots of fun meeting the public, sharing information and stories about our Borzoi between ourselves and anyone who asked about them.

Many thanks to all those who helped in so many ways:

Photographers: Kelly Brunarski, Suzanne Deghi, Joyce Katona, Barbara Lord, Patti Neale, Rebecca Neale, Dave Mills and KC Thompson.

Joy Windle for sharing her slide show photos.

All the wonderful Borzoi who spent time with us at the booth—big hugs!

Helpers: Deb Vidaver-Cohen, Cindy Yerger, Michael Gilbrook, Judy Tickner, Harry and Karin Johnson and Greg and Dee Jones and most of all my husband, Peter Schreiber for all help during the whole process and his expertise at the show.

Also special thanks to the “unnamed” artist who painted the Russian churches backdrop.

Plans for next year are already in the works, so see you then.
fter I’ve opened my cabinet doors to my Facebook Friends, you’re probably wondering what I could show you that you hadn’t already seen within my curios. I know my cabinets are packed pretty full and it was hard to see everything. For this issue I thought I’d include items that were either not in a cabinet or difficult to see and decided to show head studies since that is one of the first things we look at when we look at a Borzoi.

I bought this ceramic piece at the 2009 BCOA/MBC specialty show held in Frankenmuth, Michigan. It was in the “garage sale items” and priced very reasonably. It was cleverly designed where the back actually has a ceramic stand built onto it so that you can display it on your table without needing a plate holder. It measures 5” tall and sadly does not have a signature to help identify the maker. While I’m not fond of the dotted markings on the face (ticking), I still believe it to be worth around $25.

This hanging head study is made of pewter which was attached to glass. There is pewter surrounding the glass giving it a Tiffany stained glass look to it. It looks like someone clipped off part of the neck hair leaving it with a chopped off appearance. I cannot remember where I purchased this piece, but probably on eBay. The measurements are 3” x 5.5” with a nice loop hanger soldered to the top for easy hanging. It is a weighty piece, with a correct Borzoi ear and I value this at about $20.

Originally made to be an ashtray, you wonder if the maker had second thoughts. I say this because there are two grooves for a cigarette to be placed, yet the depth of the ashes area is quite minimal. The detailing is nice and is signed “Jacqueline.” I have come across her signature on several other breed items through the years as well. If memory serves me correctly, she was a featured artist at one of the larger pet shows back in the 1980’s. The ear was cleverly blended into the neck hair, although set a little low for my taste. Value on this 5” tall, hard to find piece is $25.

Similar to the prior ceramic Borzoi head, these are designed differently. They not only face the opposite way, but the ear looks to be more sculpted than etched and the forehead has less of a domed appearance. The backing has a circular hollowed out opening so that you can easily hang it on a hook. There is a gold foil label on the back that reads “Indi Lane Ceramics by Fran.” I am quite certain this was a trophy at one of the Midwest Borzoi Club shows in the 1980’s because these belonged to my mom. Even though designed as a prize, the value for each of these is $20.

I purchased this next head study from eBay, even though I know it was a trophy for a dog show. Any seasoned Borzoi person is familiar with the works of <now judge> Garry Newton. Garry is known for his lovely dog sculptures capturing remarkable detail within each subject he creates. My first encounter with Garry was before he was a judge. He had a booth at the BCOA show held in Racine, WI in the 1990’s. I was sharing a booth with my friend Joyce Brandin. During the day, it would get boring sitting there waiting for people to come around so all of us vendors would visit each other’s booths. That is the year Garry donated the “Reflections” bronze where the Borzoi was gazing down into a pond. While I could have ordered one at that time, it was way over my head for affordability, but looking back now, it was a steal and I pine over it to this day. Since I bought this used, it had several scuffs and bruises. In good condition, I would value this at $75. Measuring 5”, the detail is remarkable and the ear is done exquisitely.

BCOA 2011 Year End
Obedience & Rally Rankings
for BCOA member-owned Borzoi
January 1st to December 31st, 2011

Corrections to June Mintchell, 260-723-4633, rmintchell@yahoo.com

The BCOA #1 dog in obedience for 2011 is DC Téine Avada Kedavra SC, CDX, RA owned by A Midgarden & J Mintchell with an average score of 196½.

Currently dogs need only 1 QS in obedience to be ranked at year’s end. The dog with the OVERALL top average score in novice, open &/or utility is ranked #1 overall in obedience. The #2 ranked Novice Borzoi won an ALL BREED High In Trial this year (score 199). The single highest score earned this year was a 199½, earned by the #1 Novice dog. The #3 ranked Novice dog won 2 Hound Specialty Club High In Trials.

If all Borzoi were included regardless of BCOA ownership, we would have had 18 more dogs listed here and there.

Congratulations to Robin Stachon, who is not only our 2011 BCOA Top Junior Showman, but also the recipient of our first annual Borzoi Club of America Junior Showmanship Scholarship - job well done, Robin!

I want to take this time to remind all juniors that the BCOA yearly scholarship award is available to our junior handlers who meet the qualifications as stated on the junior page of the BCOA website: www.borzoiclubofamerica.com

As in years past, during the first part of 2011, I mailed out letters and membership applications on behalf of the Borzoi Club of America to junior non-members. Sadly, not only have the number of non-member juniors handling Borzoi dwindled, so has the number of BCOA junior members actually participating in junior competition gone down.

With that in mind, I would like to make the following proposal:

In an effort to encourage juniors to not only join, but to actually participate in junior competition, I would like to suggest that in 2012 we open up our yearly BCOA Top Five Junior Certificates Of Recognition to all juniors (club members as well as non-members) handling Borzoi in AKC sponsored junior showmanship competition. The only caveat would be that our Top Junior Award and Number One Certificate can only be won by a junior showman who is a member of the Borzoi Club of America. If any non-member should qualify to win the number two through five certificates, the appropriate certificate, along with a BCOA letter of invitation and membership application, would be mailed out to that junior. It is my opinion that this is another positive way to encourage children and their families to join and participate as members, while allowing them the opportunity to strive for that number one award! I look forward to input from the board, as well as club members on this idea for increased involvement by a larger number of juniors.

In closing, I would like to thank all those members who supported our BCOA junior members throughout the past year. I encourage all club members to take the time in 2012 to get to know the young people who represent our breed’s future!
I don’t recall if I purchased this as a wall hanging or a necklace, but I doubt it would be worn around my neck due to the size. A very elegant looking Borzoi head, it must have been made by someone that either owned Borzoi or had been very close to one in their life. The material feels like it is a kiln fired clay rather than ceramic. The sculptor was proud enough of their creation to have signed it “Mary McLerran.” So if you’re out there Mary, congratulations on designing a simply lovely Borzoi head. This hangs on the door of one of my cabinets, so perhaps you first got a glimpse of it within my Facebook albums. Measuring 4” from nose to opposite edge, the value on this as a necklace or a wall hanging is $45.

This bronze head was purchased several years ago from a friend of mine, Susan Motisi. She told me it was given as a trophy at one of the dog shows. Several were also available for outright purchase so she had bought a few. It measures 5” with nice detail, including a beautiful ear. Of course there is no signature to determine who made it. Pam Leichtnam believes it was given at one of the Midwest Borzoi Club shows, but didn’t recall who the maker was. If I made something this beautiful, you can bet that I would be signing my name all over it to let everyone know where it came from. Surely a fine Borzoi specimen that I value at $75.

It is getting quite difficult to locate nice Borzoi collectibles these days. I’m often asked how I managed to acquire such a collection. It came from years of attending antique shows, hitting antique shops and flea markets, and of course in the last 10 years, I managed to accumulate many things from eBay. Whatever your Borzoi collecting desire may be, if you see something you like, the best time to buy it is then; as long as it is within your budget.
