Realizing I don’t often do columns on jewelry, I decided to take a look within my jewelry cabinet to find something to show you. Trying to keep it as a theme, I chose headstudy pins to write about. I try to do different things and not always figurines so let’s take a gander at what we have for you to look at.

This first pin is one I found on a collectibles website other than eBay, if you can believe that. It looks like it was easy to create, yet the stitching is so evenly done it was probably more difficult than I realize. It was made out of a felt-like material and designed as a lovely tri-color Borzoi; however, the ear was placed incorrectly. Being lightweight, it would be easy to wear on even the most delicate fabric without your blouse sagging. It measures 2” long and was priced at $15 and as far as I know, was the only one they made.

Here is a colorful pin made of some type of resin compound, meaning it’s definitely not ceramic or porcelain. This pin shows a lot of detail measuring 1½” long. This is a little bulkier than some but because it is resin, you can wear it on a blouse without fear of it tugging or making your blouse sag in that spot. Although unsigned, I believe this was a homemade pin and not something that was mass-produced. I value this at $20.

Along the same line as the previous pin, I am pretty sure this one is made of ceramic. It looks lighter-weight because it is thinner, but actually weighs more than the previous pin. The artist gave it such a perfect Borzoi look that I believe it could have been produced right from an actual photograph. More realistic with the mouth open, it measures 1¼” and I value this at $25.

Plastic pins may not be your ideal, but they tend to be lightweight and easy to wear. This lovely plastic pin was created in a nice likeness to the Borzoi, however, they cheapened it a bit by painting the eye, nose and tongue rather than maybe adding a jewel. I’m not sure what kind of plastic was used, but it is solid and not a flimsy type see-thru material. It resembles Bakelite, but if you felt it, you would know in an instant it’s not. This measures 2” and is an older piece that I value at $35.

Looking like catalin, which is a plastic material used in the Bakelite era in the 1940s, this lovely pin has engravings etched into it to offer lovely facial features of the Borzoi. This pin may really have the appearance of Bakelite, but I still believe it is catalin. With a beautiful red gemstone eye and rhinestones added to the collar, this is a much more exquisite head-study than the prior one. It is difficult to see in this picture, but the backing is actually curved. Rather rare, I value this at $75.

I almost saved this one for best for last, but it really isn’t a pin; it is a belt buckle! I have been trying to think of everything to make this into something wearable other than a buckle since I don’t really wear belts! This was made by Lyn Gaylord, and while it looks like sterling silver, it is actually a highly polished metal that is possibly aluminum; not quite sure. If you go to the website of Lyn Gaylord, all you will find is sterling pieces, and of course you pay a much higher price. I’m pretty sure I paid around $35 for this lovely buckle. The detailing is remarkable and it is large at nearly 4” across and on the heavy

BCOA Annual Versatility Award

Deadline for submitting your application for the BCOA Annual Versatility Award is January 15.

The purpose of this annual award is to acknowledge the achievements of member-owned Borzoi who compete in a minimum of three unrelated areas, one of which must be conformation, during the award year. So during 2013, the Borzoi must have earned a minimum of one AKC conformation point plus one minimum requirement from each of the following areas:

1) AKC Obedience or AKC Rally or AKC Tracking or Agility (AKC or USDAA): one qualifying leg or one tracking title.

2) Lure Coursing (AKC or ASFA) or Open Field Coursing (NOFCA or NACA or TCC) or Racing (LGRA or NOTRA): one point or a JC.

Documentation must be sent to Karen Ackerman, P.O. Box 507, Upton, WY 82730-0507 by January 15, 2014 for the 2013 award. To download the application, and for information on how the AVA points are calculated, go to the BCOA website and click on BCOA Programs, Versatility Award: www.borzoiclubofamerica.org/bcoa-versatility-award.html

In 2012, the three following dogs qualified for the AVA and based on points earned during 2012 were ranked:
1. GCH Oronzova Fireworks Festival SC, AX, AXJ, owner Suzanne Deghi.
2. DC Valinor’s Circuit De Monaco At Riverrun RN, SC, FCH, owner Karla Smith.

for BCOA member-owned Borzoi, January 1 to September 30, 2013

Corrections to June Mintchell, PO Box 31, N Manchester, IN 46961, rmintchell@yahoo.com

Dogs must be owned by a BCOA member to be included. To be ranked #1 overall at year’s end, a dog must have at least 3 QS from the regular classes and all QS from the regular classes will be averaged for that dog. To be ranked #1 in any particular class at year’s end only 1 score is needed.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS, ART, AND BORZOI LOVERS!

The BCOA annual art auction and silent auction will be held on Friday April 11, 2014. However, this year, in addition to the regular art items we all love so much, there will be an additional art category and opportunity for event sponsorships.

The new category is “Green” Borzoi Art!! Let’s show our love of Borzoi, art and the earth with art that is made in part or all from recycled, re-purposed, up-cycled, rescued, found, 2nd hand etc materials. The Borzoi community is FULL of artists, crafters, and art lovers.

Are you an art and Borzoi lover, not an artist, and have no items to donate but you still want to support the event in some way? We have tiered sponsorships available to all financial-only donors which will be included in the catalog with accompanying dedication/memoriam if desired.

American Kennel Club Meet The Breeds Booth

by Ron Williams

On September 28 and 29, AKC held their annual Meet The Breeds event at the massive Jacob Javits Center in New York City. One hundred thirty-nine dog breeds and 44 cat breeds were represented. Over 50 vendors had setups. The Dog Demo Ring had demonstrations including the Police Dog Club; AKC Earthdog; US Customs & Border Patrol; Obedience & Agility; Carting and even Atka, the Amazing Eskie. I'm sorry they didn't have the Flyball demo I enjoyed so much last year! The Feline stage featured musical performances from The Wiz, The Wizard of Oz and, of course, Cats! Who needs to go to Broadway?

Once again I was in charge of assembling a team to design and work the “meet and greet” Borzoi booth. They were expecting over 20,000 visitors. It’s been reported that the daily number was closer to 35,000 both days and it seemed like every visitor stopped to visit our Borzoi. People are fascinated with our breed. Children and adults alike want to meet the dogs and take photos with them.

It was amazing the number of young children who were familiar with Borzoi and wanted to meet one in person and learn more about them. Several parents said this was their child’s favorite breed. I hope this means there’s hope for young folks taking an interest in our breed as they grow older.

I would like to thank the Borzoi team that helped put together and worked the Borzoi booth. Linda Deutsch masterfully brought to life her vision of a Russian palace sitting room. Lorene Connolly on Saturday and Joy Windle on Sunday took the time out to help in the booth. Joy drove up from Pennsylvania with Eddy for the meet and greet. I brought Shea and Melody on Saturday with Melody having to return on Sunday. My partner, Guy, dressed up as Czar Guy Nicholas.

Most of the breed booths were decorated to reflect the region of the breed or the activity for which the breed is most known. I’ve always been impressed in the planning, creativity and effort that goes into some of the booths.

On Saturday visitors voted for their favorite booths. Not just the best-decorated booths win awards. The criteria also includes educational value and friendliness of the booth. We won a Hound Group 4! I’m pretty sure Melody, Shea and Czar Guy ended up on many Facebook pages. Visitors took photos of the dogs alone; Czar Guy alone; dogs and Guy; kids and adults with the dogs and kids and adults alone with Guy! It was an exhausting day for all of us and yes, this was repeated on Sunday with Joy dressed as a Grand Duchess.

For the three years I’ve been involved I never thought of the Borzoi booth winning a placement. The joy on the faces were enough. However, winning made the team excited to be involved again next year and have begun planning of how to improve the booth. As I mentioned, it’s an exhausting two days. However, it wouldn’t be if more dogs and members were involved. With only two dogs a day, after about 5 hours with little or no break, they were worn out.

At the end of a long exhausting weekend, Guy was sitting on his throne and I was relaxing on the sofa Linda had made from three folding chairs, counting the minutes to pack-up and leave while Melody lay on the dog bed half asleep. A young boy sat on the floor stroking Melody. After a long quiet moment his parents called to him and said it’s time to go. He got up and thanked us. I said, “Thank you for stopping by.” He replied “NO! Thank You, because if you hadn’t been here today you wouldn’t have brought Melody!”

Don’t miss out. Please contact Ron Williams to be a part of this extremely satisfying experience in 2014!

side, so wouldn’t make a good pin, but I’d even like to try and make it into a pendant, with no success yet. If I saw this in person at a booth, I would gladly pay up to $100 because of the beauty. When I purchased this on auction, there was also a sterling piece that went to someone else. Just a beautiful piece.

I am showing you two similar pieces for the best for last. The top piece is real Bakelite and was screwed onto a brass silhouette cutout. It is my absolute favorite piece measuring 3” and valued at $500+, due to it being real Bakelite. The pin beneath it is almost an exact replica except for the ear. While the smaller 2” pin looks like wood and was sold to me as wood, upon further inspection, I found it is made of some type of resin. This would be valued at $35, as it is still a nicely detailed and uncommon pin.

As time goes on, it gets more difficult to find things to write about. I have been writing about Borzoi Artifacts/Unique Zoitiques for many years and while I try not to repeat anything, sometimes I forget and end up showing something that I haven’t written about in years. However, I will continue to try and offer unique and fun things regarding Borzoi collectibles that you haven’t read about before, but forgive me if something I wrote about 10 years ago pops back up in a future column. Remember that not everyone has been in Borzoi as long as others. Enjoy your search for that perfect Borzoi collectible that reminds you of our beautiful breed.

Ch. Attaway-Kinobi Running to Paradise, SC, FCh "Eden"

My keeper from our "Oregon Coast" litter, Eden returned from maternity leave to earn the final points towards her ASFA Field Champion title at the Grand National in Colorado. I am so grateful to co-breeder Melissa Pearce, who has conditioned and handled Eden for running events and gives her lots of TLC. Eden's name began with a "Paradise" in Oregon and morphed into a line from a poem by William Butler Yeats.

Ch Attaway-Kinobi Gold River "River"

River is the third from our "Oregon Coast" litter to become a champion. With his classic outline and light, sound movement, River finished his title easily, entirely owner-handled by Joann. Like the prince in a fairy tale, River is beautiful inside and out. A grinner par excellence, he wins friends everywhere. Eyes normal, DM clear, other health checks are pending.
