Sometimes I show expensive pieces and sometimes not. I try to cater to everyone’s interest and budget. Another thing I have to think about is what some people are limited to include in their collection. For instance, I have a friend that lives in California in an earthquake zone. She often tells me she doesn’t bother with porcelains since she can’t display them for fear they will fall and break if an earthquake came about. This column is geared to show you other figurines you can display that probably won’t break. Of course I am talking about metal statues and to fit into most anyone’s budget, I’ve selected a few that are normally reasonably priced, if you are lucky enough to find one of them.

This first metal Borzoi measures 5″ tall and feels solid, weighing a little more than the usual pot metal dogs. It may be lead but I’m not a metallurgist so can’t guarantee that. I have seen this same dog in a little larger version that is attached to a rather large brass clip. The paint on these figures often chips away from age and handling, as this one slightly has. This is a less common Borzoi, not to be confused with the one that closely resembles it with the head facing forward. Value would be around $30.

Here is a nicely detailed sitting figure made of pot metal. What is odd about this piece is I cannot locate anything to indicate how the Borzoi was attached to the base. The underside doesn’t show any screws, the topside has no space between the dog and the bottom, which is quite perplexing. In any event, this 5″ dog is nice because it is in the less common sitting position. Rather uncommon, I value this at $35.

I’m showing two different statues of the same Borzoi model here. The more common dog is the bookend with the deco metal circular design at the back, while the pipe holder is on the rarer side. Usually the only pipe holder attached to a Borzoi is the one that can be found in several different sizes attached to a base or as a doorstop. I’m not fond of the paint job on the bookend, but since it is original to the piece, I don’t want to remove or change the color and lessen the value. The dog stands 4″ tall. Either piece, you could expect to pay around $45 each.

While many Japan Borzoi collectibles are normally ceramic or porcelain, it is less usual to find something made of metal. The lovely stance of this 4″ Borzoi, coupled with the detail in the hair, makes this a highly desirable piece. It is embossed Made in Japan. It is a solid piece with a nice chrome wash and is most likely made of pot metal. One of my favorite Japan statues and not often found, I value this at $40.

Another lovely chrome-washed patina on this 8″ Borzoi that adds beauty to its already lovely design. I don’t recall seeing more than one of this particular statue before. One thing sure is that you won’t find it in the present state this figurine is in. With the base being hollow, I decided to add a little music box underneath as well as little feet to lift it high enough off the table for the wind-

Teddy won an Award of Merit at the 2015 BCOA National Specialty. Judge Anne Midgarden DVM’s critique: “an example of total soundness. He has muscle, hare feet, an exceptional deep, slightly sprung chest and balanced angulation.” Teddy also won multiple group placements under hound breeder-judges, always breeder-owner handled.

for BCOA member-owned Borzoi, January 1 to September 30, 2015

Corrections to June Mintchell, PO Box 31, N Manchester, IN 46961, rmintchell@yahoo.com

The first person listed as the dog's owner by AKC must be a BCOA member to be included. To be ranked #1 overall at year's end, a dog must have at least 3 QS from the regular classes and all QS from the regular classes will be averaged for that dog. To be ranked #1 in any particular class at year's end only 1 score is needed.

Calling all artists and art collectors!!

Less than 4 months away...

The BCOA Annual Art Auction and silent auction will be held on Friday, April 15, 2016

Redecorating? Downsizing? Have some special Borzoi items you no longer have room for? Donate them to the BCOA Silent Auction or the Live Art Auction that will be held April 15th at the 2016 BCOA National Specialty in Kansas. You can elect to donate 100% of the proceeds to BCOA or share it with BCOA 50/50%. Borzoi-related art and collectibles, books, original art, antiques, etc. are preferred. Other Borzoi/dog related items of interest or value may be accepted such as fancy collars and leads etc.

We will again feature “Earth Borzoi” ART !! We had some beautiful and creative entries last year and we can’t wait to see what you can do this year!! Let’s show our love of Borzoi, art and the earth with art that is made in part or all from recycled, re-purposed, up-cycled, rescued, found, 2nd hand etc. materials. The Borzoi community is FULL of artists, crafters and art collectors. The Earth Borzoi competition is judged by fellow artists and all entries must be a 50/50 or 100% donation to the Live Art Auction. Donor forms will be online, available at the show, or you can request by e-mail.

Contact: Shirley McFadden, Art Auction Coordinator - borzois@att.net

Shipped donations may be mailed to: Kay Cassella

The Health Committee would like to extend a sincere thank you to the Borzoi Club of Delaware Valley for their memorial contribution to the health fund in loving memory of Vanessa Johnson.

This is a beautiful way to memorialize the wonderful Borzoi person that Vanessa was and I’m sure that she would be very honored by this thoughtful contribution in her name. Thank you for your generosity!

Sincerely,

ing mechanism to sit properly. Without the addition I made, this uncommon, unmarked figurine is valued around $45. As is with my music box addition, priceless!

Getting back to the Motherland of our wonderful breed is this pair of Borzoi produced by the Kasli Company. These iron sculptures, which they refer to as cast-iron molding, first appeared in the 19th century. According to Wikipedia, the iron was smelted on the fire from wooden coal. (Rather than rewrite the article here, please visit the page online to find out further details.) The more common of the two is the 3”x7” reclining figure, which is valued around $50. The Borzoi standing on base measures 7” tall and is harder to find and priced accordingly at around $75-$100.

Whether you’re collecting on a whim when you see one appear, or are a serious collector trying to add everything and anything to your collection, eventually you will become well versed in what you believe something is valued at. It can be a fun, yet expensive, hobby. In any event, collecting seems to add a bit of pride to you when you find something at an antique shop and you can proudly say “I own a real dog that looks like this.” Most times the people are impressed; other times they’re just glad to get rid of something out of their booth. Just have fun collecting and remember to appreciate your real live ones more than you do your collectibles.
