Specialty Judge's Comments

by Mr. Christopher T. Neale

It is a great honor and responsibility to be elected by your peers to judge the national specialty. It was the highlight of my judging career.

When I judge Borzoi, my eye goes first to the head, looking for a nice deep muzzle with Roman finish, gentle flowing planes, sweet expression and small, fine ears. Missing teeth are to be counted as a fault that goes into the "whole dog" mix.

The powerful, arched neck will flow nicely into the withers then on to the back and the much-belabored slightly rising loin, then to the long, low-carried tail.

Examination of the running gear will show me sloping shoulders and return of upper arm that will support 60% of the dog's weight. The hindquarters will be muscular, broad and well bent. Tying the two ends together is the well-muscled loin. Looking at Borzoi as a sighthound tells me that there will be strong, hard muscle. Good construction, strong, athletic movement will be a given. Armed with this formula, let's proceed to the classes.

6-9 DOGS

First in this class went to Islehaven Camano, a strong, confident puppy. Second went to Kyrov-LeReau Heaven Sent. Both dogs had good outlines for their age. The first puppy had stronger movement.

9-12 DOGS

Téine-Katz Sun Glacier won this class. I liked his head, front angles, forechest and overall outline.

12-18 DOGS

This was a strong class. First was Svora Sonoma My Lagan Love. He was a statuesque dog, with very good outline with smooth, sound movement. He's a very interesting dog.

NOVICE DOGS

The novice winner, Avalon Lip Line Xpress won his class on movement and substance.

BRED BY EXHIBITOR DOGS

First was Majenkir Front and Center. A sturdy dog with a fabulous outline had a lovely neck blending into excellent shoulders with good return. Another interesting dog.

AMERICAN BRED DOGS

The American-Bred winner, Romanoc Gerhard's Gaze of Coburn, won his class over Maskova's Masquerade At Dukeman. Both dogs had moderate angles and attractive heads. This class was decided on length of body.

OPEN DOGS

Kyrov Ever and Always and Annwn Ascalon

were both stunning dogs nicely proportioned with good heads and strong, sound movement. The Kyrov dog went up because he had more angles front and rear.

WINNERS' DOG

When the Winners class came into the ring, my eyes settled on the 12-18 dog, Svora Sonoma My Lagan Love and the Bred-By dog, Majenkir Front and Center.

In outline, the 12-18 dog was lankier than the Bred-By dog. Refreshing my memory, my hand told me that the Bred-By had a slightly better build in front. My eye told me that the 12-18 had a better head. My heart told me that we need whole well balanced dog: neck, front, loin and rear. Thus it went. The flow of the body won. The Bred-By was Winners Dog and the 12-18 was Reserve. A tip of the hat went to the 6-9 Puppy, Islehaven Camano.

6-9 BITCH

Aria Zoyra Teltail Heart won the junior puppy bitch class. She had a beautiful outline and a lovely head. She was a very dramatic puppy.

9-12 BITCH

Téine Avalanche Glacier won this class. She has a good head and neck, good fore chest, well angled front and a strong, broad rear. Second place was her sister, Téine Rainbow Glacier.

12-18 BITCH

First place was Avalyn's Regal Trailblazer. She is a feminine, balanced moving bitch.

She has a lovely head, graceful neck, pleasing shoulder and matching rear.

NOVICE BITCH

C'lestial Ffortune's Ffantasy at Starswift won the Novice class over Vitrina Cassiopeia. Both were outstanding movers. The winner had better forechest and shoulder angles.

BRED-BY BITCH

Bred-By has historically been a strong class. This was no exception! First was Zooropa Laureate Adrienne Picture This. She has a lovely head with nice roman finish and pleasing planes. With graceful outline, beautiful shoulders and forechest and matching rear she was stunning. Second place was Dana

BCOA National Sweepstakes Critique

By Ms. Karen (Cricket) Murray

Thank you to the voting members of BCOA for the opportunity to judge the National Sweepstakes classes in Kentucky. It was two years of anticipation and a most enjoyable day. I was honored to work with Karen Mays, our annual steward extraordinaire. Thank you to those exhibitors who entered their dogs.

I weighed my judging decisions with the same emphasis as our standard, with greater weight on an overall functional moving dog than minute details or faults. By requesting that the entrants walk to the center of the ring and showcase their hounds (I was not looking for perfect stack) my aim was to see the dogs at a walk as well as earlier at a trot, having the handlers choose how to show their dogs to their best advantage, letting the gallery get a good look at each entry, as well as photo opportunities. It is a moment I feel a national entry deserves.

Puppies: Overall this is a promising entry and I look to our future stars. There were elegant heads, good toplines and generally great dispositions. I found very few missing teeth and only one questionable bite. Effortless movement at a trot was rewarded. Fronts that used the entire leg and shoulder assembly placed better than ones that only reached from the elbow or failed to reach resulting in a 'falling on front' impression. It was harder to find outstanding rears in this group with rear drive from the hip and stifle and hock. More common was a pendulum rear or unfortunately the tendency towards sickle hocks. As I go by the idea that our breed is rear wheel drive, I was paying special attention to this feature. Puppies were moved individually to insure all were given their best opportunity to impress without concern of dogs in front or behind them.

Veterans: This was a struggle and a pleasure. I have seen and admired most of these Borzoi since they were puppies. A few placements were extremely close. Final decisions went to overall condition.

PUPPY DOGS 6-9 MONTHS.

My favorite puppy class of the day. Islehaven Camano, a knock out puppy that had it all: balance, movement, head, topline, tail carriage. Aria Zorya Dark Shadows, beautiful muzzle, markings, bone and substance. Kyrov LeReau Heaven Sent, a curvy eye-catcher with a big future ahead. Ravenna Jack Sparrow at Avalyn, so aptly named and with pleasing proportions.

PUPPY DOGS 9-12 MONTHS

Windsatin Versace had the best two-beat trot with reach and drive in this class.

PUPPY DOGS 12-15 MONTHS

Seabury Shooting Star, this puppy stood out on his first go round and was hard to fault. I had no idea which kennel he was from but loved his elegance without sacrificing masculinity. He set the stage for the day and held on for Best in Sweeps. Hats off to Dr. Jim and his legendary breeding program.

PUPPY DOGS 15-18 MONTHS

Phaedra Mig Volschebnivitch, a substantial boy with coat to match, had an easy stride and a charming personality.

PUPPY BITCHES 6-9 MONTHS

Ravenna Pia Petunia, all curves and effervescence, her solid moving rear and mischievous glint in her eye won her the Best of Opposite in Sweeps position.

PUPPY BITCHES 9-12 MONTHS

Twin Elms Kes, was just right in form and function, had substance without being doggy. Although she out-moved second place, I would like to mention Chrysalis Endless Night for her beauty.

PUPPY BITCHES 12-15 MONTHS

This was a big and competitive class. First place went to Nickolai Maviam Dark Legacy. Her breeder had the best coy grin when she was awarded first place. I will always remember it with my own smile. This Borzoi girl was sound and a pleasure to judge.

PUPPY BITCHES 15 -18 MONTHS

This class was the most diverse in style. Although there might have been better shoulders in this class, my winner, Radharc Grand Cayman, was the best overall with plenty of leg under her. Unfortunately by the time we got to Best in Sweeps she no longer wanted to play the game.

VETERANS 7-8 YEAR MALES

Ch. Zabava Mercury won this class with his classic outline, substance and movement. Although there were sentimental favorites, at the end he best represented the standard to me and took home the Best Opposite in Veteran Sweeps ribbon.

VETERANS 8-9 YEAR MALES

Del Sol Spitzer was the lone entry in this class and seemed to enjoy all the attention. He was solid under hand.

VETERANS 9-10 MALES

I have watched these 3 dogs their whole lives. For form and function without evidence of age Ch. Mascha's Matrix Of The Wild Hunt asked for the win. He was superbly handled.

VETERAN 10 AND OLDER MALES

Ch. Rainmaker Forever more CD SC, another singleton entry. This delightful Borzoi did not look his age and went around the ring with ease. He was in beautiful condition and coat, well cared for and it showed. I was honored to have him in the ring.

VETERAN 7-8 BITCHES

DC Svora's Scandalous showed a great strength in her stride as well as her stack.

VETERAN 8-9 BITCHES

Single entry Ch. Raynbo Swan Princess scared off the competition with her great shoulders and attitude.

VETERAN 9-10 BITCHES

Ch. Carowynd's Oksana of Tamarzi was thrilled to be back in the show ring. She moved out well and really impressed the crowd. It was easy to fall in love with her.

VETERAN 10 AND OVER BITCHES

There were no absentees in this class—kudos to their owners and caretakers. A bitch I have always loved from afar walked in and stole my heart, Ch. Del Sol Belle Starr. However the queen of the day was in command of her ring not to be denied anything at all. Ch. Babotjka's Fantaziya, in glorious coat and still holding an impressive topline. This diva walked away with Best Veteran in Sweeps easily. I later learned her breeder had traveled from Europe to see our National and I was thrilled she was there to see this shining star of strength and beauty, confidently gather her trophies and ribbons. §

Dan Cameo. Although a large and substantial bitch, she was feminine with a beautiful outline.

AMERICAN BRED BITCH

First was Maskova's Affare DeCour. She is a very balanced, pretty bitch. She won over Golightly Valinor's Beau Mond with better proportion of leg to body.

OPEN BITCH

Ksar Christmas Snow was "Miss Cranky". There was a thunderstorm going on outside and she didn't like it. As the class went on, my eye kept going back to her. When she settled down, it became clear that her body flowed nicely from her head into a graceful neck, nice shoulders and forechest, proper topline and matching rear. If she hadn't behaved at the end, the beautiful Dana Dan Sassafra could easily have moved up.

WINNERS' BITCH

When I saw the Bred-By bitch, Zooropa Laureate Adrienne Picture This, sail around the ring, I knew it was done! She was Winners' Bitch. Reserve was the 9-12 puppy Téine Avalanche Glacier.

7-10 VETERAN DOG

Ch. Mascha's Matrix of the Wild Hunt won the very competitive class. He's a large dog with matching front and rear. A strong mover, his handler had to work hard to stay with him. Also present was an impressive

2010 NATIONAL SPECIALTY

Ch. Kenai's Last of the Dogmen. He pressed the winner hard despite an injury.

10 AND OVER VETERAN DOG

The 10 plus years old winner, Ch. Rainmaker Forever More demonstrated that he could still compete.

7-10 VETERAN BITCH

This class was very large. The winner, Ch. Raynbo Majenkir Swan Princess, was very good looking with a pretty head, nice angles front and rear and cheerful, sound movement.

10 AND OVER VETERAN BITCH

Ch. Babotjka's Fantaziya won this class. A very dramatic bitch, she has a pleasing head, elegant neck, correct topline and strong, sound movement.

THE BRACE CLASS AND THE TEAM CLASS

were won by well-behaved silver brindles. I'm not sure who had more fun, the dogs or me.

BEST OF BREED

"An embarrassment of riches" was the thought that crossed my mind as the dog Specials and later the bitch Specials came into the ring.

After many ruthless cuts we arrived at the finals. I pulled out a magnificent dog, Ch. Aashtoria Wildhunt Hidden Agenda and beautiful bitch, Ch. Reflections I'm the Lucky One.

The bitch was very feminine with beautiful head planes and expression. Her graceful neck flowed into a beautiful topline and powerful croup. She has excellent forechest, properly placed and well-angled shoulders and matching rear and strong loin. Her movement was dazzling.

The dog was a stallion! His outline from head to croup was flawless. He has a fine front and beautiful movement. This dog has a lot to offer the breed.

After reminding the handlers to keep breathing, I took the dogs around one last time to show off. I brought the Winners Dog out, the dog Special came out next and then the bitch came out and was put up front. There it was.

Ch. Reflections I'm the Lucky One was Best of Breed, Majenkir Front and Center was Best of Winners and Ch. Aashtoria Wildhunt Hidden Agenda was best of Opposite Sex.

My Select Dog was a handsome, compact dog Ch. Blackmoor Samwise at Konza. My Select Bitch was the lovely Ch. Golightly Beau Soleil Lagniappe.

Dog Awards of Merit went to: Ch. PoDusham Royalist, Ch. Avalyn's Magnum Force, DC Ashtoria Irishbrook Wild Hunt Lemans, Ch. Aria's the Quite Man, Ch. Romanoc Saddle the Wind Gucci and the 7-10 Veteran Ch. Mascha's Matrix of the Wild Hunt.

Bitch Awards of Merit were: Ch. Majenkir My Vixen Alley, Ch. Jubilee-Katushka Ebel, Ch. Jubilee Dunamai Sozo and the 10 year and over Veteran Ch. Babotjka's Fantaziya.

To the Officers, Committee members and the membership of Borzoi Club of America; thank you for the honor of judging the 2010 National Specialty. §
