- 1st Vitrina Endeavor Henry: A red sable dog, very pretty, beautifully angulated front and rear, beautiful head, lovely topline, beautiful sidegait, nice neck set, shoulders and eye. He was very together for his age and age group.
- 2nd Katz Riding Shotgun With My Ruger: A dark blue puppy beautifully angulated both front and rear. At this time, a bit flat footed in front, but obviously going through a rapid growth stage. Nice low hocks, a very pleasing and beautiful head, lovely and correct topline, fabulous depth of chest and body length. Overall, he was a very nice and promising boy.
- 3rd Blackmoor When Stars Collide at Eidolon: A very pretty, white and gold sable puppy, shorter coupled, but very together and moves very well, just a bit wide in backskull, could be a bit more angulated in the rear but lovely depth of chest, good bone and a lovely eye.
- 4th Klassnij Kashemir Wolkowo: A white and gold sable puppy that looks very young. A lovely puppy, he could have just a bit more underjaw, but superb angulation and a nice topline, wonderful earset. He was just a bit more immature compared to the other puppies in the class, but obviously a quality boy with a lot of potential for growth and size.

Observations and Critique of the 2019 Borzoi Club of America National Specialty

By Kalen Dumke, Nonsuch Borzoi

The national specialty show this year was well attended with a great variety of types, many puppies, veterans, stud dogs and brood bitches and of course a large entry of juniors! I was thrilled for the opportunity to see and go over so many lovely Borzoi. I appreciate all the exhibitors and spectators that took the time to travel to Gettysburg in order to show their dogs or just participate in being at a national.

Editor's note: comments for each class are included with the class photos.

JUNIOR SHOWMANSHIP

Best Junior – Elise Patti: Superb handler, among a number of exceptional youths. Brava for a job well done!

Reserve Best Junior - Logan Yankowski: A very deserving youth with fantastic handling skills!

BEST OF BREED

GChG Mielikki Hinote Secret Agent Man: This male was a true “stallion” representative of a male Borzoi. He possessed lovely body, depth of chest, head, neck, carriage, movement and that undefinable presence in the ring. Among an outstanding line-up of the cream of our breed he was my choice that day for Best Borzoi.

BEST OF WINNERS

Kyrov's Sword Dance: This dog came very close to one of my ideal Borzoi. He possessed masculinity without coarseness, fabulous sound movement, a shape that was curvy, yet not over- or underdone, and that superb head. Just the type and style that I love.

BEST OF OPPOSITE SEX & BEST OF BREED NATIONAL OWNER-HANDLED SERIES

GCh. Soyara's Devilish Delilah: This was one of the loveliest bitches that I've seen. She was feminine, curvy, with just the correct amount of topline and angulation. Great depth of chest, perfect bone for her size and build, beautiful carriage and that fabulous reach and drive that I love. A shining star in the breed.

SELECT DOG

GChS Fiery Run Rider on the Storm, BCAT: I loved this dog's style, head, body, movement and quality. He literally floated around the ring with reach and drive. Sound on the down and back he caught my eye from the first. A beautiful dog, he possessed just the right amount of bone and had a narrow, beautifully oval back-skull which is so correct in the breed. Very deserving of this win.

SELECT BITCH

DC GChB Jubilee Drop of Golden Sun, SC: An absolutely stunning white and gold bitch that screamed “quality” from the moment she walked into the ring. She possessed absolutely beautiful conformation, with great body, depth and bone, while still maintaining her femininity. I loved her head and eye and that ground-covering yet oh-so-easy sidegait. Coming and going she never put a foot down wrong. Easily one of the winners of the show.

AWARDS OF MERIT

I'm going to mention in general terms that my AOMs were all absolutely gorgeous specimens of the breed. Although ranging in style and type, every one of them was in the running for recognition at this or any show. It was an honor to have them in my ring.

BEST PUPPY

Echovesna's Master of the Universe: A striking young male with gorgeous breed type, lovely conformation, head and superb movement. I predict great things for this youngster.

BEST IN VETERAN CLASSES

DC Wind N' Satin Dragons Maiden, SC: A small and very feminine bitch with exquisite angulation and movement. She is quality all the way and a wonderful representative of the breed. I appreciate the opportunity to judge her and give her this award.

BEST IN BRED BY EXHIBITOR CLASSES

Elace Ruffles and Truffles: One of my favorites, this bitch is undeniably gorgeous, with movement that is to be envied in the breed. She is not only lovely and feminine but on the move you cannot take your eyes off of her. My choice on the day for best Bred by Exhibitor.

BEST STUD DOG

GCh. Estet Classic Yarolik At Chrysalis: A lovely heavily-bodied dog that sired consistent and very lovely offspring. My choice on the day for my best stud dog. This was a very large class with many wonderful stud dogs and their get.

BEST BROOD BITCH

DC GChB Jubilee Drop of Golden Sun, SC: A gorgeous bitch with the same offspring as was in the ring with the stud dog. A great cross and very deserving of best brood bitch. Again, this was an immense class of quality brood bitches and some delectable offspring.

CLOSING COMMENTS...

I would again like to thank the many exhibitors, spectators, handlers and helpers that attended and showed your gorgeous Borzoi. It was an opportunity of a lifetime to see such quality in one place. There were many dogs who won, others who placed and yet more that walked out of the ring without a placement. My hats off to all of you for coming. I appreciated the opportunity to go over each and every dog and can appreciate the time, money and effort it took attending this show. Again thank you for allowing me to Judge the BCOA National Specialty Show 2019!

2019 BCOA National Sweepstakes Critique

By Kristina Terra, Zabava Borzoi

It was a great pleasure and privilege to judge the 2019 BCOA Puppy and Veteran Sweepstakes. Thank you to the membership for selecting me for this honor and thank you to all the exhibitors for letting me go over your beautiful puppies and precious veterans.

The general appearance of the AKC Borzoi standard sets clear priorities for judging our breed: "Special emphasis should be placed on sound running gear, strong neck and jaws, courage and agility, combined with proper condition". Guided by this statement, I deemed the standard's descriptions of the shoulders, forelegs, feet, hind-quarters, gait, neck and jaws as the most important. The standard mentions strong pasterns twice, so that was another important primary judging criteria for me. Once I found the dogs that satisfied the special emphasis statement, I considered all the other finer points of the standard, while looking for that unmistakable elegance. I mostly saw full dentition and only a couple of bites that were off – kudos to the breeders! Also, the tails seemed to be mostly good—not too many curly ones at all—well done!

I found that it was extremely difficult to judge the veteran sweepstakes. I felt that every single one of the entries deserved to be only first – there was such a depth of quality in the veteran classes. Thank you for showing your gorgeous veterans to me, I will forever remember their soulful eyes, dignified looks and wonderful enthusiasm.

SWEEPSTAKES 7-8 VETERAN DOGS:

DC Riju Enjoy the Ride, CD, SC, PCD, BN, RA, SWA, SCM, SIM, SEM, SHDA – a sound mover, pretty in the stack, with a wonderful head, beautiful tail and nice lines.

SWEEPSTAKES 8-9 VETERAN DOGS:

Ch Timeless Midnight Flyer, CGCA – a beautiful boy with a wonderful body, head, neck and expression, he looked wonderful in the ring.

SWEEPSTAKES 9-10 VETERAN DOGS:

GChB DC Zoiboyz Eclipse of the Heart, SC, CGC – a beautiful mover on the go-around and totally sound on the down and back, he was a joy to have in the ring, showed beautifully and had such pizzazz.

SWEEPSTAKES 10 AND OLDER VETERAN DOGS:

Ch Zharkov Téine Briar, SC – I was happy to see three boys in the 10 and older class; all were beautiful and constituted a testament to their respective breeding programs and owners' care. The class winner presented a gorgeous picture of a classic Borzoi. He was my Best in Veteran Sweeps winner. He fit the standard to a "t": sound on the down and back, he had ideal functional running gear, beautiful body, wonderful sidegait, proper neck carriage and a gorgeous head. If one drew a picture of him, it could fit right into one of the historical Russian books on Borzoi. A wonderful specimen of the breed that looked fantastic for his age.

SWEEPSTAKES 7-8 VETERAN BITCHES:

DC GChB Jubilee Drop Of Golden Sun, SC – a beautiful bitch in the stack; she was absolutely sound, possessed a beautiful sidegait, a gorgeous head and soft expression. This was a very large and strong class that she won. My Best Opposite in Veteran Sweepstakes.

SWEEPSTAKES 8-9 VETERAN BITCHES:

DC Wind 'N Satin Dragons Maiden, SC – This girl won a tough class with several gorgeous girls in it. She was pretty in the stack and her front was under her. She was totally sound on the down and back and light-footed on the go-around. There were bitches in that class that looked gorgeous in the stack or had amazingly easy go-arounds but she was the one that presented a total package on this day.

SWEEPSTAKES 9-10 VETERAN BITCHES:

Silkswift Brandywine At Kalabria, SC – A classic beauty with soundness, good sidegait and all the right details. Her young handler did a fantastic job showing her.

SWEEPSTAKES 10 AND OLDER VETERAN BITCHES:

GCH Anotak Mandalay Bay, SC. This bitch won a very competitive class of gorgeous bitches on her soundness, flowing sidegait, incredible condition and light-footed gait. This well-angulated girl was totally together and so efficient on the move. I was amazed to learn she was almost 13. White teeth, impeccable condition and a gorgeous expression, wow!

2019 BCOA National Dual Champion Stakes Critique

By Caroline Coile, PhD

When I was asked to judge the DC sweeps, I thought: this will be simple! I have a good mental picture of my ideal Borzoi—athletic, flowing lines, beautiful face, slightly arched topline, small ears, good angulation, sound to and fro, and easy on the go-round with good reach and drive. This ideal is of course not seen every day, and jumps right out when it is. So when I approached the first class, saw the first dog, I thought, There's my winner! Then on to the second dog and, uh oh: There's my winner! And so on through the classes.

This was not easy. So many were so close to my ideal, as though exhibitors had read my mind and entered accordingly. Taking them around helped only a bit; so many had really good side movement. Relying on the old hack of down and back was equally unrewarding; where were all these dead sound dogs coming from? So in the end many decisions were made on the tiniest of matters. There were a few with bad feet and this ended up placing them farther back in line. Some moved high in rear and this also hurt their final placement. A surprising number had really dirty teeth and while this did not affect their placement it does affect the overall impression.

When it came to Best in Sweeps, I already knew it was not going to be easy. Moving them all again I was able to eliminate one, maybe two. Finally I was down to a dog and a bitch. I always feel bitches have an advantage in so many sighthounds, so I was inclined not to put her up. This coupled with the fact that she came back in with a cute but skilled kid showing her—an unfair advantage! But putting aside both of those things, in the end she won out based on her slightly more flowing side movement.

My notes tend to be lousy, basically consisting of “nice standing, nice side movement, nice down and back. Not another one—Argh!!” What I really want to say is: What a pleasure to see so many athletic Borzoi who could clearly do the job they were bred for.

1-4 YEARS DOGS

- 1) Dark dog with trim. He had beautiful breed type. Lovely head, which I preferred just a bit to #2's. Nice topline, tending to be a tad steep in croup at times, nice feet and pastern, nicely angled both ends. He won the class on his side movement.
- 2) White with dark patches, he pushed #1 but did not have quite the side movement of stifle angulation. I preferred his topline. Both dogs were good down and back.

4-7 YEARS DOGS

- 1) Imposing predominantly dark dog with slight white trim. Absolutely smooth to the touch; at times his topline appeared flatter than it really was once I went over him. Nice mover both from the side and down and back. Beautiful head, ears, rear and feet.
- 2) I loved the racy lines of this gray dog. Loved his flowing lines and side movement. He wasn't quite as solid as #1.
- 3) This is the dog that stole my heart on a personal level. I just adore his look—very beautiful. He did not have the side movement of the two before him and I placed him lower because of that.
- 4) This impressive self-black had beautiful flowing lines, pretty feet and good feet. Strong head. Despite being easy on the go round he was not quite the mover that the others were.

7-10 YEARS DOGS

- 1) This red and white is still very sound in every direction, with lovely side movement. Nice feet. Bit overweight and his topline is showing it.
- 2) This lovely white with black dog is very pretty, taller than #1. He was also still sound coming and going but was moving a bit high in rear.

10+ YEARS DOGS

- 1) Magnificent 11-year-old black & tan, held his topline well, he's in superb condition, moves soundly and effortlessly. Yes, I was impressed ... and yes, he was a contender for Best in Sweeps.

1-4 YEARS BITCHES

- 1) Feminine red with white. She still looks very young. Pretty expression, pretty topline, pretty rear. Front is set on a bit forward and straight, but she still needs to grow up and fill in. Flowing side movement.

4-7 YEARS BITCHES

- 1) Elegant self-cream with beautiful head, smooth lines, sound mover, nice and easy going around. Would prefer a bit more topline and better feet.
- 2) Racy smaller gray with white, very athletic. Pretty on the go-round. I preferred the head on #1. Would prefer a better set-on front.
- 3) Racy black bitch, very pretty outline but a bit rougher hands on. I prefer a slightly stronger head. Her movement was not as flowing as the first two. Would prefer more upper arm return.
- 4) Pretty white and parti, rougher in outline than the others, very pretty head. Would prefer more upper arm return.

7-10 YEARS BITCHES

- 1) First in this very strong class to a grayish bitch. While not as initially dramatic as some of the others she kept moving her way up because of the smooth shoulders, better set front and easy flowing and sound movement. Very balanced.
- 2) Loved the outline on this dark with white trim, actually preferred her topline to #1. Strong front and rear, low set hocks, flowing going around, but not as sound as #1 on the up and back. Strong head. She pushed #1 closely.
- 3) Predominantly white with black ticking, she caught my eye from across the ring with her flowing curvaceous outline. Well set-on front. I would prefer less bend of pastern and more arch of toes.
- 4) This mostly self gold is the style I love. Very pretty, sweet expression but not quite the mover as the others.

10+ YEARS BITCHES

- 1) This magnificent white with gray bitch is another with a beautiful expression and head. Impressive coat, very nice feet, dead sound down and back but not quite the side movement of some of the other class winners.
- 2) I love the racy outline of white-trimmed dark bitch, very nice topline. Preferred the head and feet of the other.

When it came to best I chose my 7-10 year bitch, who I felt out-moved the 4-7 year dog.

2019 BCOA National Futurity Critique

By Sharon Johnson, Brave New World Borzoi

Thank you for the honor of judging the 2019 BCOA Futurity. I was very impressed with the overall quality of the entry. Temperaments were wonderful! No shyness or sharpness in any of the entrants. They ALL stood for exam like seasoned show dogs. Sidegait, for the most part, was quite good and more than acceptable. It ranged from powerful and ground covering to a few, a bit sadly, hackneyed and restricted.

Almost all of the entrants, in spite of exuberant puppy antics, were sound on the down and back, had good tail sets and scissors or level bites. Toplines were very good with short backs and comparatively long loins. Some looked flatter than I would have liked but once I got my hands on them, I found the topline were masked by glorious puppy curls. Several were what I would call “wheel-backed” and rigid, which seemed to negatively affect the function and movement of the dog.

JUNIOR DOGS - 9-12 MONTHS

- 1st Sylvan Elance Travertine: A substantial youngster with powerful but light-footed sidegait. My first impression was he was a bit short on leg but his well-proportioned body was hiding under his plush coat.
- 2nd Jubilee Qonnect The Dots: A very well-put-together pup with ground-covering sidegait. He could have taken first place on another day
- 3rd Gladkii Veter Rhinestone Cowboy: Nicely proportioned, balanced and attractive pup.
- 4th Chase N’ Dreams Ghost Riders On The Storm: Very nice outline and beautifully presented.

JUNIOR DOGS - 12-15 MONTHS

- 1st Majenkir Bookstor Man For All Seasons: Leggy and typey with good sidegait.
- 2nd Adrienne Zooropa Massandra Palace: Though different lines, quite similar in structure and movement to 1st place. Just lacking a bit of maturity. Overall, a very nice pup.

SENIOR DOGS - 15-18 MONTHS

- 1st Highgarden Uthyr Pendragon: A very functional, balanced and moderate dog.
- 2nd RunTuff RiverRun Thunderfunk: A nicely built dog who seemed a bit hesitant on the go-around. I would have loved to see him move off-leash.

SENIOR DOGS - 18-21 MONTHS

- 1st Jubilee Sambuca Seven: This dog took my breath away from the moment he walked into the ring. He is sound from all angles, his type screamed “Borzoi” and his powerful sidegait gave me goosebumps.
- 2nd Starswift Everlasting Legacy: A very properly constructed and functional dog with a beautiful, ground-covering sidegait.
- 3rd Chrysalis Jubilee Amaro: Beautiful type.
- 4th Starswift Reflections Of His Legacy: I liked this dog’s length of leg and body proportions. He used himself well on the move.

SENIOR DOGS - 21-24 MONTHS

- 1st Wolfblitz The Red Rocker
- 2nd Laureate Zooropa Adrienne Tango In The Night: I have to talk about these two dogs together.

This was by far the most difficult class for me to judge. Although different types, they were very similar in balanced structure and correct movement from all angles. I must thank the handlers for their patience and endurance during the repeated go-arounds. The placements could have easily been reversed on another day.

JUNIOR BITCHES - 6-9 MONTHS

- 1st Laureate Zooropa It Started With A Kiss: Built like a tank with very nice, balanced angulation. Very light on her feet. Beautiful type. I’d like to see her when she’s a bit older
- 2nd Desertwinds Aruzia Fun Times At Hemlock Hollow: I just loved this puppy’s attitude! She made this the most fun class for me to judge. She’s a beautiful girl and I’m sure she has a bright future.

JUNIOR BITCHES - 9-12 MONTHS

- 1st Sylvan Elance Mirror Mirror: A solid puppy with floating sidegait.
- 2nd Jubilee We Have It All: Beautiful type with a nice ground-covering stride.
- 3rd Apalonia Of Bibikov: Nice length of leg and very pretty type.
